TO THE GOVERNOR, MEMBERS OF THE 68TH LEGISLATURE, AND MEMBERS OF THE JUDICIARY

On behalf of the officers, members, and staff of the Texas Judicial Council, I am pleased to transmit to you, this the 52nd Annual Report of the Texas Judicial Council, as required by Article 2328a, V.T.C.S. This report covers the activities and operation of the more than 2600 courts in the State of Texas for the calendar year 1980.

One of the most significant changes to the Texas Judiciary occurred during the period covered by the report with the adoption of Senate Joint Resolution 36. This constitutional amendment, adopted by the citizens of our state in November, 1980, becomes effective on September 1, 1981 and will for the first time provide for an intermediate appeal in criminal cases. The present 14 Courts of Civil Appeal will be converted into intermediate appellate courts having both criminal and civil jurisdiction.

Under the provisions of Article 2328a, V.T.C.S. which provides that the Council shall make a "...continuous study of and report upon the organization, rules, procedures and practices of the judicial system of the State of Texas, the work accomplished and the results produced by that system and its various parts and methods for its improvement..." the Council and the Office of Court Administration has been working with the various task forces appointed by Chief Justice Joe R. Greenhill and the appropriate legislative committees in developing the necessary legislation to implement S.J.R. 36.

It is my sincere hope that the information contained in this report will be helpful in channeling the state's efforts to meet the needs of society by providing for a more just, effective and efficient system of justice for all of our citizens.

Respectfully submitted,

Ben Z. Grant

THE STATE OF THE JUDICIARY MESSAGE

Delivered by
CHIEF JUSTICE JOE R. GREENHILL
SUPREME COURT OF TEXAS

To The
SIXTY SEVENTH LEGISLATURE
April 21, 1981

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 5924h V.T.C.S.

THE STATE OF THE JUDICIARY

This, the second State of the Judiciary message, was given to a Joint Session of the Texas Legislature, pursuant to Article 5429h, V.T.C.S., on Tuesday, April 21, 1981.

The first State of the Judiciary message was presented by Chief Justice Joe R. Greenhill on Wednesday, January 31, 1979 to the Texas Legislature. The text may be found on page 9 of the Fiftieth Annual Report, Texas Judicial Council; Second Annual Report, Office of Court Administration.

Art. 5429h. State of the judiciary message by supreme court chief justice

At a convenient time at the commencement of each regular session of the legislature, the chief justice of the supreme court of the state shall deliver a "state of the judiciary" message evaluating the accessibility of the courts to the citizens of the state and the future directions and needs of the courts of the state. It is the intent of the legislature that such "state of the judiciary" message promote better understanding between the legislative and judicial branches of government and thereby promote the more efficient administration of justice in Texas.

Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 172, ch. 83, § 1, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.

H.C.R. No. 153

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, Article 5429h, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, provides that at a convenient time during each regular session of the legislature the chief justice of the supreme court shall deliver a "state of the judiciary" message evaluating the accessibility of the courts to the citizens of the state and the future directions and needs of the courts; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the State of Texas, the Senate concurring, That the House of Representatives and the Senate meet in joint session in the hall of the house at 2:30 p.m., Tuesday, April 21, 1981; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That the Honorable Joe R. Greenhill, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas, be hereby invited to address the Regular Session of the 67th Legislature in joint session at that time.

President of the Senate

Speaker of the House

Governor

STATE OF THE JUDICIARY
By Chief Justice Joe R. Greenhill
Tuesday, April 21, 1981

Governor Hobby, Speaker Clayton, Congressman Wright, Distinguished Members of the Senate and the House, Fellow Members of the Judiciary, ladies and gentlemen:

The Judiciary and I appreciate this opportunity to present this Second State of the Judiciary Message.

It is fitting that the address be on San Jacinto Day. Among the urgent reasons for the need for the independence of Texas was the total lack of an independent and effective judiciary.

Our Declaration of Independence, signed March 2nd, 1836, begins with a charge that the existing government "has ceased to protect the lives, liberty and property of the people . . ."

Under General Sam Houston and his gallant army of 800, our independence was won at San Jacinto on this day, April 21st, of 1836.

All of us join in remembering and honoring those who courageously and successfully risked their lives for our freedom and independence.

It may not come as a surprise that, upon our becoming the Republic of Texas, it was President Sam Houston who also came to the aid of the Judiciary,--to which he referred as "one of the three coordinate divisions of the government, and is in equal dignity to either of the others."[1]

The amount of the judges' pay, then $500 a year in gold or silver, was not at issue. The problem was that only one-half of the pay was in cash. The other half was in promissory notes. They had a face value of only twelve cents on the dollar.

Sam Houston sent a message to the Congress of Texas to correct this. In it he said among other things:

> "To maintain an able, honest and enlightened Judiciary should be the first object of every free country."

The problem was properly solved.

Today crime in the streets and in our homes is a major concern.

It is not a new problem. Some 2500 years ago, the Prophet Ezekiel wrote,

> "The land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence."[2]

Courts cannot stop crime in the street. But when the criminal justice system does not function properly, neither the victims nor the accused get the justice they deserve. The people, with justification, lose confidence in our system; and a major deterrent to crime is lost.

In this session of the Legislature, you have a great opportunity to improve our system. It is not only an opportunity; it is, with due respect, a duty to carry out the provisions of a constitutional amendment adopted by the citizens of Texas last November.

Our major problem for years has been that all criminal appeals go to one court, the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Notwithstanding diligent work by the judges of that court, its backlog is outrageous; and the delay in the administration of criminal justice is shocking.

Even though, by constitutional amendment, a few years back, that court was enlarged to nine members, the backlog has become even larger. At the end of 1979, there were some 3,200 cases on its docket. The number increased to over 4,000 by the end of [2] Ezekiel 7:23.

1980. The time, between conviction and oral argument, is almost three years.

We already have fourteen, intermediate courts which, with help from this Legislature, can handle the criminal and civil appellate case load without delay.

In my first State of the Judiciary Message two years ago, I recommended the constitutional amendment to give the intermediate courts criminal, as well as civil jurisdiction.

You responded, by proposing the amendment; and it was adopted by the people. I am grateful to many of you, to Governor Clements, and to the news media for editorial support for recommending its adoption.

So the people have spoken. They have directed that criminal appeals, except for death penalty cases, go to the intermediate courts. And they will go to such courts beginning September 1st of this year. They will have jurisdiction of such appeals, and the Court of Criminal Appeals will not, except for death penalty cases.

With proper implementation, the time on new appeals, will be cut from over three years to six to nine months. Even that delay will be caused by the time it takes the court reporters to prepare the record, and for the lawyers to prepare their briefs.

The factual determinations in criminal cases will be final in the Courts of Appeals; i.e., did the defendant do the act or not.

Thereafter, the Court of Criminal Appeals will, or should have discretionary jurisdiction to hear the case further, as to questions of law.

FUNDING FOR COURTS OF APPEALS

This major change in our judicial system will take adequate funding from this Legislature.

The Courts of Appeals must be able to dispose of both civil and criminal cases with dispatch. They will need additional judges, support personnel, and equipment for their enlarged duties and case loads.

Senate Bill 265 by Senator Farabee, which has already passed the Senate, provides for additional judges for the Courts of Appeals. A companion bill, House Bill 499, by Mr. Maloney, is in a House committee.

The necessary staff support and equipment will have to be provided in your appropriations bill.

When courts are inadequately staffed and equipped because of inadequate funding, there is a "denial" of justice, both criminal and civil, and there is a delay which is so abhorrent to the people.

Another bill has been introduced which, in my opinion, disregards at least the spirit of the constitutional amendment. It would create four more new, and entirely separate, courts of appeals; and in actuality, all criminal appeals would go to those courts.

The people have spoken on this. The amendment adopted provided that the courts of civil appeals would be given criminal jurisdiction, i.e., that the intermediate courts would be integrated and would decide both civil and criminal appeals. That is the way it is done in at least 46 of the other states, in the federal courts, and in England.

I urge you to implement the constitutional amendment as it was intended to be implemented, and to give us the tools and support to make our integrated intermediate court system work. Otherwise we will have substituted a delay in one place for a delay in other places. That, to me, would be unconscionable.

We are conscious that the dollars of the taxpayers should be carefully spent and invested. Giving us the tools with which to make the system work efficiently and swiftly is, in my opinion, a wise investment of public funds.

In my former address to you, I pointed out that there are three branches of government; but some of us are more equal than others, less than one-third of one percent of the entire budget of this state was allocated to the Judiciary, the third branch.

While some additional funds have been recommended in the present budget as it went by the Legislative Budget Board and your Appropriations Committees, the percentage fraction allocated to the Judiciary has been actually reduced from 31/100th of one percent to 28/100th of one percent.

You are about to appropriate, as an emergency matter, many millions of dollars for prisons, permanent and temporary,--which causes me to observe that some Federal judges get your attention a good deal better than we do.

You are allocating for adult probation many times more than is even asked by the Judiciary. And you are, with justification, considering additional sums for juvenile probation.

While these persons who have gone through the judicial system deserve attention, so does the system itself.

The State has the resources to fund adequately the Judiciary of this State. We would urge you to do so.

JUDICIAL SELECTION

A word about judicial elections.

The quality of the Judiciary can rise no higher than the quality of persons you can attract to, and retain in, the system.

That, in turn, depends not only on judicial compensation, but upon the method of selection of judges.

What is said here is without regard to individuals who were elected last November. It is a matter of principle and not personalities.

Attention was drawn last November to partisan judicial elections. But this was not a new problem.

Many of us have been trying for years to get the Judiciary out of partisan politics.

There is a proper place for party politics in the election of the executive and legislative branches. You, and they, and the parties have a platform.

There are no meaningful party or individual platforms for the Judiciary. The judge cannot favor a person, or his lawyer, because of his or her party. The judge must administer justice equally without regard to the persons before the bench.

The judge should be elected, or defeated, because of his or her merit,--not because a person of a particular party is elected President: Election of judges by "the big lever" is, in my opinion, a poor method.

While my personal preference is for Merit Selection, or Missouri Plan types of retention elections, their adoption would require a constitutional amendment. Political reality tells me that this is not possible at this time.

The question here is not whether we will continue to be elected, but how.

I urge you to give serious consideration to the non-partisan election of judges,--just as we now elect our mayors and school boards.

It is also our duty to keep you informed of matters which the Supreme Court is doing:

OVERSIGHT OF THE STATE BAR

At about this same time last session, you gave our court oversight of the State Bar and its budget. The State Bar was almost "sunsetted" over the cost of its new building, and the absence of non-lawyers on its Board of Directors.

You added six non-lawyers to the Board; and they have, in my opinion, been beneficial to the Bar and to our court.

The building, then four million dollars short of funds, has now been fully paid for by the lawyers and judges of Texas without the use of any state funds for the building or grounds.

We are presently working with the Bar on lawyer advertising.

MEDIA IN THE COURTROOM

In the case of Estes v. Texas, the U.S. Supreme Court held that T.V. and related media in the courtroom was not constitutionally permissible. The Canons of Judicial Ethics, promulgated by our court, therefore, prohibited such coverage. The Supreme Court has changed its position. As I read its recent Chandler opinion, the regulation of media in the courtroom has been left to the states for regulation.

Our court is, therefore, reconsidering the Canons of Judicial Ethics. Studies, and reports to us, have already been made. We feel that the judges of Texas should have the right to be heard on what is desirable, and what is not.

We have funds for only one judicial meeting a year, and it is set for September in Corpus Christi. After having the benefit of that discussion, our court will, without delay, promulgate new rules for media coverage.

You may be sure we are conscious of the rights of parties and of witnesses, as well as the public's right to know.

BAR EXAMS

The expedition and quality of these trials, civil and criminal, depends, in no small measure, on the quality of the lawyers. The client is almost wholly dependent on the lawyer to assert or protect his or her rights.

It is our view that all persons in Texas should be represented by lawyers who know how to try cases. This not only is essential to the rights of clients, it is of great help to our courts. With a legal education at the state's expense, graduates, at least from the state supported schools, should be equipped to represent people in the courts, state and federal.

To insure this we will shortly add a new section to the bar exams on civil and criminal procedure and Texas evidence. It should be of sufficient difficulty and depth to cause law students to enroll in these courses in law school. This will be a separate section of the exam, separately graded, which must be passed to obtain a license.

If the student passed the other parts of the exam, such other portions need not be taken again.

To give the law schools time to adjust their curriculum and employ professors as needed, the rule will become effective with the exams in July 1983.

We have no desire to reduce great law schools to mere trade schools. We encourage their continued efforts to teach students to "think like a lawyer," to engage in a theoretical national perspective of the law, and to draw on innovations of other jurisdictions. We encourage them to be schools of national importance and scope. But their graduates who elect to practice in Texas must be able to fulfill properly their duties to their clients and the court.

The offering and teaching of such basic courses as procedure and evidence will not, or should not in our opinion, detract from those other goals.

RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Under your authority, we promulgate rules for the trial of civil cases. Effective January 1, the court promulgated rules which modernized the discovery practices. Nation-wide criticisms of abuses, expense and delay occasioned by discovery practices prompted this action. We hope that the revised practice will eliminate needless court hearings, expedite trials, and afford sanctions upon those who abuse the practice.

Appellate civil practice has been streamlined and simplified by the elimination of duplicate jurisdictional steps.

Since you last met, one hundred rules of trial and appellate practice were amended and modernized. We are presently working on a rule that will provide a uniform system for dismissal practices throughout the state. This has been a continuing problem which we expect to resolve. We are also studying the federal rules of evidence to determine whether they should be adopted by us for use in civil cases.

Work on these rules takes a lot of our time, but it is worth it.

The revisions are adopted after study by able committees of lawyers, representing all sides of the docket and after hearings which are open to the public.

A WORD ABOUT REDISTRICTING

It became painfully obvious to me before your appropriations committees that the continuous course and expense of adding new trial judges, while others are not trying a sufficient number of cases, was a real problem.

Since 1876, there has never been a redistricting of our judicial districts. You have put a patch on here and there, but the dockets of our trial judges are greatly disproportionate.

Some judges preside over geographic areas which do not generate many cases. Those judges, who are characterized by some legislators as persons who do not work very much, the result is a dissatisfaction with "trial judges"; in general, and the result has been a penalty in the basic compensation of all district judges.

In my opinion, most trial judges work diligently. Some do not,--and some could not dispose of a large number of cases even if they wanted to because their courts are not presented with a sufficient number of cases.

If some judges simply do not work, the answer is political. We are all elected. But if they do not work because of a light case load, you can remedy that.

Whether it is desirable to redistrict or to simply continue to add new trial judges is a matter for you to decide. I urged action on your part in my 1979 message, and I urge it again.

It is too late for such action at this session, but it might be an appropriate subject for one of your interim committees.

NEIGHBORHOOD DISPUTE CENTERS

Statistics show that most assault crimes are committed between persons who know each other. They result, for example, from family or neighbor disputes. An opportunity to air these differences may very well satisfy the problems without resorting to violence, even murder.

In a similar vein, there are many small disputes between consumers and merchants. They occur at all economic levels, but occur most often among people who cannot afford litigation.

A Chinese proverb says, "Going to the law is losing a cow for the sake of a cat." And Voltaire once wrote that,

> "I was ruined but twice,--once when I gained a law suit and once when I lost one."
> When it costs a cow to gain a cat, alternative action is appropriate.[3]

In my first address to you in 1979, I called attention to programs of NEIGHBORHOOD DISPUTE CENTERS. One such center is already in action in Houston, and others are contemplated at least in Dallas and San Antonio.

A bill to give official recognition to such dispute centers in counties of 500,000 or more has been passed out of a Senate committee; and there is a companion bill in the House. These centers are to be locally funded.

I urge your serious consideration of them. They hold great promise for speedy resolution of disputes without the cost and delay of litigation. Persons dissatisfied may still go to court; but statistics show that a very large percentage of the disputes are resolved at such centers.

CONCLUSION

I end as I began,--with the importance of the opening words of our Declaration of Independence, the victory at San Jacinto which gave vitality to our government, and a mandate for an efficient judicial system.

We, of the Judiciary, express our willingness, and our desire, to be,--or to become, an operative force which will dispatch justice, without delay, as our forefathers envisioned;--and as you and the people have the right to expect.

We appreciate your consideration of our problems, and thank you for this opportunity.

2. To receive and consider suggestions from judges, public officers, members of the bar and citizens, touching remedies for faults in the administration of justice.

4. To gather judicial statistics and other pertinent data from the several judges and other court officials of the State.

5. To make a complete detailed report, on or before December 1st of each year, to the Governor and to the Supreme Court, of all its proceedings, suggestions and recommendations, and such supplemental reports from time to time as the Council may deem advisable. For the purposes of any hearing, any Council officer, in advance of such hearing, or any Council member or officer sitting at such hearing, may issue under his official signature and cause to be served by registered or certified mail or by any adult person upon any prospective witness, a subpoena or like appropriate order. Upon the failure of a witness to testify, or upon his failure to appear or to produce books and documents as so ordered, any district judge of the county of residence of such witness shall, on written motion by, or on behalf of, the Council or Committee conducting said hearing, compel said witness to testify or, as the case may be, to appear and testify, by the same means, including attachment and penalties, whereby said judge may compel the testimony and appearance of witnesses in the trial of a cause pending in his own court.

2. To elect from its membership a president and such other officers as it may deem advisable, provided the secretary need not be a member of the Council, and provided further that the president of the Council may appoint, for and during his term as president, such committees as he may deem necessary for the proper organization of the Council.

3. To make such rules and regulations as it may deem expedient for its government and that of its officers and committees, and to prescribe the duties of its officers and committees.

4. To appoint committees from its membership, and charge such committees with such of its duties and delegate to such committees such of its powers as it may deem proper.

5. To require the supplying of statistical data and other information pertaining to the amount and character of the civil and criminal business transacted by the courts of this State and other information pertaining to their conduct and operation, and to prescribe procedures and forms for the supplying of such statistical data and other information.

It shall be an official duty of every justice, judge, clerk or other officer of every court of this State to comply with the reasonable requirements of the Council for the supplying of statistical data appertaining to the amount and character of the business transacted by his court and of such other information concerning said court or the office of the clerk thereof as may be within the scope of the functions of the Council. Failure to supply such data or information within a reasonable time after request therefor shall be presumptively deemed a willful refusal to supply the same.

Due performance of the duty to supply data and information as aforesaid shall be enforceable by writ of mandamus, the corresponding actions for which shall be brought, and the corresponding courts shall have jurisdiction of the same, as follows: if against a district clerk or a clerk, judge or other officer of a trial court other than a district court, in a district court of the county of residence of the respondent; if against a district judge or clerk of a court of civil appeals, in the Court of Civil Appeals for the Supreme Judicial District in which the respondent resides; in all other cases, in the Supreme Court of Texas. The Attorney General of Texas shall file and prosecute the foregoing actions on behalf of the Council upon its written request, which shall be presumptively taken as the action of the Council if signed by its president or by as many as five of its members, but no such action shall be filed if the attorney general shall in writing certify his opinion that the same is without merit.

Compensation limited to traveling and necessary expenses

Sec. 7. No member of the Council shall receive any compensation for his services as such member, but shall be paid for actual traveling and other necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of his duties as such member, to be paid upon verified, itemized account approved by the President of the Council or by a Vice President thereof when so authorized in writing by the President. The necessary clerical expenses of the Council and its officers and committees shall be paid in like manner.

Partial invalidity

Sec. 8. If any section or portion of any section of this Act shall for any reason be declared invalid, such invalidity shall not affect any other section or portion of section of this Act.

THE COURT STRUCTURE OF TEXAS
JANUARY 1, 1981
Descriptive Outline

The present court structure of Texas, established by the constitutional amendment of 1891, provides for a Supreme Court which is the highest state appellate court in civil matters and a Court of Criminal Appeals which is the highest state appellate court in criminal matters. It has fourteen intermediate courts of civil appeals. There is no intermediate court for criminal appeals from trial courts, such appeals going directly from the trial courts to the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin.*

The state trial courts of general jurisdiction are the district courts, which in some metropolitan areas have been established as courts having primarily civil, criminal, domestic relations, or juvenile jurisdiction. It should be noted that the geographical jurisdiction of each individual district court is established by the specific statute creating that court, and such jurisdiction does not necessarily correspond to any previously established court. Each court has one judge.

In addition to the above state courts, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county presided over by the county judge. To relieve the docket congestion of the single constitutional county courts the legislature has established probate courts and county courts at law in certain counties.

The Texas Constitution also provides for justice of the peace courts in each county. Since 1953, these justice courts also serve as small claims courts.

The legislature has created by statute municipal courts in each incorporated city. These courts have concurrent criminal jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts limited to the geographic confines of the municipality.

Trial in the justice of the peace courts and most municipal courts is not of record, and appeals therefrom are on trial de novo to the county court except in those counties having statutory county courts at law or where by statute the district court has assumed portions of the county court's jurisdiction.

The state provides full funding for the Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeals, and the Austin Court of Appeals. It provides a base salary for the appellate and district judges of this state. Certain counties supplement this base salary for district and intermediate appellate judges. Counties pay the costs of "constitutional" county courts, county courts at law, justices of the peace, and operating costs of district courts except the judge's basic salary. The cities finance the municipal courts.

H.B. 558 of the 66th Legislature, the general appropriations bill, appropriated $26,367,393 in general revenue funds for the operation of the judiciary in fiscal year 1980. This represents less than one percent of the $3,740,831,069 total general revenue funds appropriated.

SUPREME COURT(1)

1. Jurisdiction: The Supreme Court of Texas has state-wide final appellate jurisdiction in civil and juvenile cases, and has general responsibility for the efficient operation of the Texas Judicial System. It is empowered to make and enforce all necessary rules of civil practice and procedure for the Judicial System, and to promulgate rules of administration to provide for the efficient administration of justice in the State. This Court has original jurisdiction to issue writs and to conduct proceedings for the involuntary retirement or removal of all judges in the State.

   In addition to its major responsibilities of hearing oral arguments, deciding cases appealed to it, and writing opinions, the Supreme Court has many administrative duties placed upon it by the Legislature to ensure the efficient administration of justice by the Texas Judicial System. These duties include:

   - Promulgating the Rules of Civil Procedure for the Texas Judicial System. (Article 1731a)
   - Promulgating Rules of Administration for the Texas Judicial System. (Article 2328b)
   - Equalizing the dockets between the 14 courts of civil appeals. (Article 1738)
   - Promulgating the Rules of Procedure for the Commission on Judicial Conduct and disciplining or removing judges from office. (Article V, sec. 1a, Tex. Const.)
   - Supervising the operations of the State Bar of Texas and the rules and regulations for the admission, discipline, supervision, and disbarment of lawyers, and approving the law schools of the State. (Articles 304, 306, 302a-1)
   - Promulgating disciplinary rules for the Texas Prosecutor's Coordinating Council. (Article 323d)
   - Promulgating the rules for the operations of the Texas Court Reporters Committee and the disciplinary rules enforced by this Committee. (Article 2324b)

Supplements may be paid by the counties in the districts, not to exceed $8,000 per year and total salary must be $1,000 less than received by Supreme Court justices ($500 in the case of chief justices).

e. Term: Six years.

DISTRICT COURTS(310)

1. Jurisdiction: There are 310 separate district courts, identified by separate numbers, each having its own judge and geographical jurisdiction. In a number of areas, the geographical jurisdiction of two or more district courts is overlapping.

District courts are trial courts of general jurisdiction, having original jurisdiction in all criminal cases of the grade of felony, cases of divorce, title to land, contested elections, and all civil matters wherein the amount in controversy is $5,000 or more and concurrent jurisdiction with statutory county courts at law in cases of at least $500 and not exceeding $5,000. (In the counties which have no statutory county courts at law, district courts have exclusive original jurisdiction in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy is $1,000 or more and concurrent jurisdiction with the county court in cases of at least $500 and not exceeding $1,000.)

The district courts have original and appellate jurisdiction in probate matters and general supervisory control over commissioners court. In addition, these courts have general original jurisdiction over all causes of action whatever for which a remedy or jurisdiction is not provided by law or by the Constitution, and have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, certiorari, sequestration, attachments, garnishment, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Most district courts exercise both criminal and civil jurisdiction, but in the metropolitan areas there is a tendency for the courts to specialize in either civil, criminal or family law cases. In some cases, the courts which have criminal jurisdiction exclusively are designated criminal district courts.

A limited number of district courts also exercise the subject-matter jurisdiction normally exercised by county courts.

Appeals from judgments of the district courts are to the Court of Criminal Appeals in criminal cases and to the Courts of Civil Appeals in civil cases.[*]

2. Seats: At the county seat of each county included in each respective geographical district.
3. Membership:
   a. Number: One judge per court.
   b. Selection: Partisan district-wide elections. Vacancies between elections filled by gubernatorial appointment with advice and consent of the Senate.
   c. Qualifications: Citizen of the United States and of Texas; resident of the district for two years; age 25; licensed to practice law in Texas and a practicing lawyer or judge for four years.
   d. Salaries paid by the State:

eff. 9-1-80 $42,500
eff. 2-1-81 $44,668

Supplements authorized by statute may be paid by counties, ranging to $17,000 per year. Total salary must be $1,000 less than received by associate justices of the Court of Civil Appeals of the Supreme Judicial District.

e. Term: Four years.

"CONSTITUTIONAL" COUNTY COURTS(254)

1. Jurisdiction: The Texas Constitution provides that there shall be a county court in each county, but not all 254 courts perform judicial functions. The county court has civil, criminal, original and appellate jurisdiction. It has concurrent legal authority with justice of the peace courts in civil cases when the contested amount is $200-$500, and it has concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district court in cases when the amount exceeds $500 but is less than $1,000. The county court also usually has general control over probate cases. In criminal cases, the county court has exclusive original jurisdiction over all misdemeanors when the fine to be imposed exceeds $200 or when a jail sentence may be imposed.

Unless expressly provided by law, the county court does not have criminal jurisdiction in any county where a criminal district court exists. Decisions from the municipal and justice courts may be appealed to the county court, and the appeal takes the form of a completely new trial (trial de novo). Original and appellate judgments of the county court may be appealed to the Court of Civil Appeals in civil cases and to the Court of Criminal Appeals in criminal cases.[*]

Geographical jurisdiction: County-wide.

2. Seats: County seat of county of jurisdiction.

---

[*] S.J.R. 36, ADOPTED BY THE ELECTORATE ON NOVEMBER 4, 1980, CONVERTS THE EXISTING COURTS OF CIVIL APPEALS TO GENERAL INTERMEDIATE APPELLATE COURTS HAVING JURISDICTION OVER BOTH CIVIL AND CRIMINAL INTERMEDIATE APPEALS AND BECOMES EFFECTIVE ON SEPTEMBER 1, 1981.

3. Membership:
   a. Number: One judge per court.
   b. Selection: County-wide partisan election with vacancies between elections filled by county commissioners.
   c. Qualifications: "Shall be well-informed in the law of the State." (Law license unnecessary).
   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.
   e. Term: Four years.

   The commissioners court is not a judicial entity; rather it is the governing body of the county. It is presided over by the constitutional county judge and includes four elected commissioners. Although it performs no judicial duties, the commissioners court can issue writs and contempt citations.

COUNTY COURTS AT LAW(118)

1. Jurisdiction: The Legislature has the authority to create special county courts. One hundred eighteen of these statutory courts have been created in forty-eight counties, primarily in metropolitan areas, to relieve the constitutional county judge of all or part of his judicial duties. The legal jurisdiction of the special county courts varies considerably according to the statute under which they are created. As the varied names suggest, some of these courts are intended to exercise in practice subject-matter jurisdiction in only limited fields, such as civil, criminal, probate or appellate (from justice courts or municipal courts); but the names do not always disclose their complete functions. In general, the concurrent civil jurisdiction of these statutory courts with the district court is higher than constitutional county courts.

   Geographical Jurisdiction: County-wide.

3. Membership:
   a. Number: One judge per court.
   b. Selection: County-wide partisan election with vacancies between elections filled by county commissioners.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS(972)

1. Jurisdiction: The Texas Constitution provides that each county is to be divided into at least 4, and not more than 8 justice precincts, in each of which shall be elected one justice of the peace, provided that if the precinct includes a city of 8,000 or more inhabitants, one additional justice of the peace shall be elected from such precinct.

   Justice of the peace courts have original jurisdiction in criminal cases when the fine does not exceed $200. They have jurisdiction of civil matters when the amount in controversy does not exceed $500. A justice of the peace may issue warrants of search and arrest, conduct preliminary hearings, serve as ex officio notary public, perform marriages, and serve as coroner in counties were there is no provision for a medical examiner. The justice court also functions as a small claims court in disputes over unpaid wages and salaries when the contested amount does not exceed $200 and in controversies over uncollected bills when the amount does not exceed $150.
2. Seats: Determined by county commissioners.
3. Membership:
   a. Number: One judge per court.
   b. Selection: Partisan elections by voters of respective precincts.
   c. Qualifications: None.
   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.
   e. Term: Four years.

MUNICIPAL COURTS

1. Jurisdiction: Authorized by statute, municipal courts are operating in 700 cities and towns. Metropolitan cities usually have more than one municipal court. These courts have neither civil nor appellate jurisdiction, but they have original and exclusive jurisdiction over violations of city ordinances (predominately traffic offenses). The municipal courts also have concurrent jurisdiction with justice courts in misdemeanor cases resulting from violations of state laws within the city limits when punishment is limited to fines only of $200 or less. Municipal judges also serve as magistrates of the state.

   Trials in all but seven municipal courts are not of record, with appeals therefrom going to the county court, the county court at law or the district court upon trial de novo. The municipal courts of El Paso, Houston, Longview, Lubbock, Midland, Sweetwater and Wichita Falls are courts of record with appeals on the record perfected in the municipal court.
2. Seats: Determined by the city or town.
3. Membership:
   a. Number: Generally, one court per municipality and one judge per court. Statutes allow some city governing bodies to establish more than one court and/or more than one judge per court. A recent survey identified 863 municipal judicial positions in the state.
   b. Selection: Elected or appointed by the governing body of the city or town as provided by city charter or ordinance.
   c. Qualifications: Determined by the governing body of the city or town.
   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the city or town. Highly variable.
   e. Term: Varies from one year to an indefinite term. Often at the will of the governing body of the city or town.

JUDICIAL AGENCIES

1. Office of Court Administration (Art. 2328b). The 65th Legislature (1977) created the state office of Court Administration to assist the Supreme Court and Chief Justice in administrative matters. The law also directs the Supreme Court to promulgate rules of administration and to appoint an administrative director of the courts who serves under the direction and supervision of the Chief Justice and as an additional duty of office, to serve as Executive Director of the Texas Judicial Council. The Administrative Director is directed to consult with various court administrative officers to encourage a more efficient operation of the Texas judicial system and to aid judges, clerks and court coordinators in this regard.

2. Texas Judicial Council (Art. 2328a). Created in 1929, the 18-member Texas Judicial Council is charged with making a continuous study of the organization and operation of the courts. The Council reviews and considers proposals on ways to improve the administration of justice and formulates methods for simplifying judicial procedures. The Council gathers judicial statistics from all levels of courts and makes a detailed annual report to the Governor and to the Supreme Court.

3. Texas Court Reporters Committee (Art. 2324b). The 65th Legislature (1977) enacted a law requiring court reporters to be certified by the Supreme Court and established a Court Reporters Committee to administer tests on the qualifications set out in the Act, collect fees, certify applicants to the Supreme Court, and revoke certificates for unprofessional conduct (appealable to the district court). The Committee is composed of an active district judge who serves as chairman; two members of the Bar; three active official court reporters; and three active freelance reporters; who are appointed by by the Supreme Court for six year terms. The Office of Court Administration performs administrative staff functions for the Committee.

4. State Commission on Judicial Conduct. The Texas Constitution empowers this Commission to consider complaints against any justice or judge concerning acts or conduct which are clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his duties or which cast public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of justice. The Commission may, if it deems necessary, initiate removal proceedings or take actions for the involuntary retirement of justices or judges who are disabled to the extent that they are unable to perform their duties, or when their disability is likely to become permanent in nature. Members of the Commission consist of two appellate justices, two district judges, one justice of the peace, two attorneys, and four lay members.

SUBJECT-MATTER JURISDICTION OF TEXAS COURTS

JANUARY 1, 1981

INTRODUCTION

The present court system of Texas, established by the constitutional amendment of 1891, provides for a Supreme Court which is the highest state appellate court for civil matters and a Court of Criminal Appeals which makes the final determination in criminal matters. The state has fourteen intermediate courts of civil appeals. There are no intermediate appellate courts for criminal matters, such appeals going directly from the trial courts to the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin.[*]

The state trial courts of general jurisdiction are the district courts, of which there are 310. (Ten of these courts are named "Criminal District Courts," but as will be noted later, only three are strictly limited only to criminal cases on the district level.)

The geographical jurisdiction of each individual district court is established by the specific statute creating that court, and that jurisdiction does not necessarily correspond to the jurisdiction of any previously established court. Each court has one judge. The state pays the judge's base salary and some expenses.

In addition to these state courts, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county presided over by the county judge, who also serves as head of the county commissioners court, the governing body of the county. To relieve the docket of the single "constitutional" county court in each county, the legislature has established statutory county courts at law in 48 counties. As of January 1, 1981, there are eight probate courts and 110 county courts at law. (One of these courts is authorized, but not implemented by the county in which it is located as of January 1, 1981. Two additional courts have been created by the legislature with effective dates at some time in the future.)

The Texas Constitution also provides for a minimum of four justice of the peace courts in each county. Today there are 972 of the justice of the peace courts statewide. Since 1953, these justice courts have also served as small claims courts.

The legislature has created by statute municipal courts in each incorporated city in the state. These courts have original jurisdiction over purported violations of municipal ordinances and concurrent criminal jurisdiction over state violations with the justice of the peace courts, limited to the geographical confines of the municipality.

Trial in the justice of the peace and municipal courts (with seven exceptions) is not of record, and appeals therefrom are on trial de novo to the county court except in certain counties noted later, where the appeal is to a county court at law or to a district court.

Jurisdiction of the various levels of courts is established both by constitutional provision and by statute. Statutory jurisdiction of the courts is established by general statutes providing jurisdiction for all courts on a particular level, as well as by the statute establishing the individual courts. Thus to determine the jurisdiction of any one particular court, recourse must be had first to the constitution, second to the general statutes establishing jurisdiction for that level of court, third to the specific statute authorizing the establishment of the particular court in question and fourth to statutes dealing with specific subject matters, such as the Family Code, which requires a lawyer-judge to hear appeals from actions by non-lawyer judges in juvenile cases.

APPELLATE COURTS

As previously indicated, the Supreme Court is the court of last resort in the state in civil matters. It also has original jurisdiction to issue writs and conduct proceedings for the involuntary retirement or removal of any judge in the state. It is empowered to make rules for the administration of justice, rules of civil practice and procedure for use in all courts having civil jurisdiction and rules governing the licensing of members of the bar of the state. The Court of Criminal Appeals has final state appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases and may issue writs to enforce its judgments. The courts of civil appeals are the intermediate appellate courts of the state, limited however to civil matters.[*]

[*] S J R 36, ADOPTED BY THE ELECTORATE ON NOVEMBER 4, 1980, CONVERTS THE EXISTING COURTS OF CIVIL APPEALS TO GENERAL INTERMEDIATE APPELLATE COURTS HAVING JURISDICTION OVER BOTH CIVIL AND CRIMINAL INTERMEDIATE APPEALS AND BECOMES EFFECTIVE ON SEPTEMBER 1, 1981.

While the jurisdiction of the appellate courts is quite uniform for each level, that of the various trial court levels is not. To meet the diversified characteristics of the state, the legislature has established varying jurisdiction for the same level of courts depending on the location or local needs.

Broadly, the district courts are the general trial courts for the state, having original jurisdiction in all criminal cases of the grade of felony, cases of divorce, title to land, contested elections and all civil matters wherein the amount in controversy is $1,000 or more. The district court has concurrent civil jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in cases of at least $500. In those counties having statutory county courts at law, the district courts by general law have exclusive jurisdiction in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy is $5,000 or more and concurrent jurisdiction with the statutory county courts at law in cases of at least $500 and not to exceed $5,000.*

In 1971, all "constitutional" county courts were divested of eminent domain jurisdiction (art. 3266a), which was placed in the district courts and county courts at law. The statute did not transfer any eminent domain cases pending in the "constitutional" county court on the effective date of the act, therefore, some county courts are continuing to dispose of eminent domain matters filed before 1971. This article lists several instances where eminent domain jurisdiction was transferred from the county court by "special" law pertaining to only one county. In some instances, this transfer was prior to 1971 and in others pending eminent domain cases were transferred. These situations are to be contrasted with the 1971 general statute which transferred jurisdiction of "new" eminent domain cases.

The Supreme Court has repeatedly held that the legislature cannot reduce the jurisdiction of a constitutional district court. Lord v. Clayton, 163 Tex. 62, 352 S.W. 2d 718 (1961); Zamora v. State, 508 S.W. 2d 819 (Tex. Crim. App. 1974). Ex Parte Richards, 137 Tex. 520, 155 S.W. 2d 597 (1941); Reasonover v. Reasonover, 122 Tex. 512, 58 S.W. 2d 817 (1933); St. Louis S. W. Ry. v. Hall, 98 Tex. 480, 85 S.W. 786 (1905). See also Castro v. State, 124 Tex. Crim. 13, 60 S.W.2d 211 (1933) and dissenting opinion in Ex Parte Bazemore, 430 S.W. 2d 205 (Tex. Crim. App. 1968). In Lord v. Clayton, the Supreme Court held that although the statute creating the 136th District Court of Jefferson County expressly limited its jurisdiction to civil cases and other legislation purported to give exclusive jurisdiction in criminal cases to the criminal district court of Jefferson County, the 136th Court was nevertheless a constitutional district court with full power to impanel a grand jury, receive an indictment, and try the accused.

Presently the state statutes purport to limit the jurisdiction of 18 district courts to civil matters only:

14th (Dallas) - art. 1926-11

17th (Tarrant) - arts. 199(17), 199(153)

*The concurrent civil jurisdiction of some county courts at law has by special statute been increased to $10,000, and others to $20,000.

The constitutional power to establish "other courts" (Tex. Const. art. V, sec. 1) apparently does authorize the legislature to establish special district courts with criminal jurisdiction only. Ex Parte Richards, 137 Tex. 520, 155 S.W. 2d 597 (1941). A statute limiting the jurisdiction of a district court to criminal matters was recognized by a court of civil appeals. Cook v. Nelius, 498 S.W. 2d 455 (Tex. Civ. App. - Houston [1st] 1973, no writ). In a similar situation, the Court of Criminal Appeals did not comment on the question. Pittman v. State, 434 S.W. 2d 352 (Tex. Crim. App. 1968).

Several district courts with their jurisdiction so limited have been created, but at this time, only three courts are limited to exclusively criminal district-level jurisdiction:

Criminal District Court No. 1 of Tarrant County (arts. 1926-41, 1926-42a)

Criminal District Court No. 2 of Tarrant County (art. 1926-43)

Criminal District Court No. 3 of Tarrant County (art. 1926-44)

Four others are limited to criminal, divorce, dependent and neglected children, adoption and civil habeas corpus proceedings:

Criminal District Court of Dallas County (arts. 1926-11, 1926-22)

Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County (arts. 1926-13, 1926-22)

Criminal District Court No. 3 of Dallas County (arts. 1926-14, 1926-16, 1926-22)

Criminal District Court of Jefferson County (arts. 1926-61, 1926-62)

As will be noted later, other "Criminal District Courts" cannot be categorized as having only district-level criminal jurisdiction because they also have concurrent jurisdiction with county-level courts in certain matters.

While the courts have ruled the legislature may not limit the jurisdiction of regular district courts, the statutes in various ways express the intention of the legislature that certain district courts give their primary attention to only a portion of those matters over which they have jurisdiction. Three courts are instructed to "give preference" to criminal cases and the statutes further provide that only criminal cases are to be filed in those courts:

144th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)

175th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)

187th (Bexar) - art. 199a, sec. 3.014

In the same manner, seven district courts are to give preference to civil cases and civil cases only are to be filed in those courts:

37th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)

45th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)

57th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)

73rd (Bexar) - art. 199(37)

131st (Bexar) - art. 199(37)

150th (Bexar) - arts. 199(37), 199(150)

166th (Bexar) - art. 199(37)

Perhaps less stringent is the simple statutory instruction that certain courts are to "give preference" to certain matters, with no further restrictions. Thirty courts are thusly instructed to give preference to criminal cases:

105th (Nueces) - art. 199(105)

107th (Cameron, Willacy) - art. 199(107)

138th (Cameron, Willacy) - art. 199(138)

215th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.043

224th (Bexar) - art. 199a, sec. 3.051

225th (Bexar) - art. 199a, sec. 3.052

Nine district courts are to give preference to family law matters:

256th (Dallas) - art. 199a, sec. 3.082

257th (Harris) - art. 199a, sec. 3.083

One court is directed by statute to give first preference to family law cases and second preference to criminal cases:

148th (Nueces) - art. 199a, sec. 3.001

The 65th Legislature (1977) converted all functioning domestic relations and special juvenile courts to district courts of general jurisdiction. However, these 31 courts are to "have primary responsibility for cases involving family law matters":

300th (Brazoria) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.01

301st (Dallas) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.02

329th (Wharton) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.30

330th (Dallas) - art. 1926a, sec. 2.31

The other statutory provision observed above - that of limiting the types of cases which can be filed in a particular court - is used alone in several instances. Such a restriction is probably not mandatory on the clerk of the court. Lord v. Clayton, 663 Tex. 62, 352 S.W. 2d 718 (1961). The statutes provide that in fourteen courts, civil cases only are to be filed:

11th (Harris) - art. 199(11)

55th (Harris) - art. 199(11)

61st (Harris) - art. 199(11) 11

164th (Harris) - art. 199(11)

165th (Harris) - art. 199(11)

In six courts, only criminal cases are to be filed:

174th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(174)

176th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(176)

177th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(177)

178th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(178) 12

179th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(179)

180th (Harris) - arts. 199(11), 199(180)

Finally, for one court, the legislature has specified that criminal and tax cases only shall be filed:

49th (Webb) - art. 199(111) 13

As noted above, some 110 statutory county courts at law and 8 probate courts have been created, largely in metropolitan areas. While the jurisdiction of these courts is generally carved out of that given to the "constitutional" county courts, the statutes specify in a few instances that certain jurisdiction normally in the district court is to be exercised by the county court at law concurrently with the district court. Four county courts at law are given concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district courts in specified domestic relations matters:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Lubbock County (art. 1970-340)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Lubbock County (art. 1970-340.1)

County Court at Law of Orange County (art. 1970-349A)

County Court at Law of Webb County (art. 1970-360)

14

Four county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in specified family law matters, eminent domain cases and civil cases when the matter in controversy does not exceed $10,000:

County Court at Law of Comal County (art. 1970-368)

County Court at Law of Randall County (art. 1970-371)

County Court at Law of Reeves County (art. 1970-373)

County Court at Law of Walker County (art. 1970-367)

15

Two county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in specified family law matters, eminent domain cases and civil cases when the matter in controversy does not exceed $20,000:

County Court at Law of Hays County (art. 1970-358)

County Court at Law of Medina County (art. 1970-376)

16

Two county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in specified family law matters and civil cases when the matter in controversy does not exceed $10,000:

County Court at Law of Val Verde County (art. 1970-373)

County Court at Law of Wichita County (art. 1970-166d)

17

Ten county courts at law have, by special statute, concurrent jurisdiction with the district courts in eminent domain matters:

County Court at Law of Victoria County (art. 1970-356)

County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County (art. 1970-298d)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 1 (art. 1970-31.2)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 2 (art. 1970-31.2)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 3 (art. 1970-31.2)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 4 (art. 1970-31.2)

County Court of Dallas County at Law No. 5 (art. 1970-31.2)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Hidalgo County (art. 1970-341a)

County Court at Law of Midland County (art. 1970-370)

County Court at Law of Wise County (art. 1970-374)

18

Seven county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in eminent domain cases and civil cases when the matter in controversy does not exceed $10,000:

County Court at Law of Angelina County (art. 1970-355)

County Court at Law No. 1 of Brazoria County (art. 1970-357)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazoria County (art. 1970-357)

County Court No. 2 of Galveston County (art. 1970-342b)

Probate and County Court of Galveston County (art. 1970-342)

County Court at Law of Tom Green County (art. 1970-369)

19

Five county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in eminent domain cases and civil cases when the matter in controversy does not exceed $20,000:

County Court at Law No. 2 of Cameron County (art. 1970-305c)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Collin County (art. 1970-362a)

County Court at Law of Gregg County (art. 1970-375) 20

County Court at Law No. 3 of Hidalgo County (art. 1970-341b)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Victoria County (art. 1970-356a, eff. 1/1/82, or earlier as determined by the county commissioners)

One county court at law has concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in civil cases when the matter in controversy does not exceed $20,000:

County Court at Law No. 2 of Denton County (art. 1970-352a, eff. 1/1/82, or earlier as determined by the county commissioners) 21

Finally, the statute creating one criminal district court provides that it shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the county courts at law in the county in matters of county court criminal jurisdiction:

Criminal District Court of Jefferson County (art. 1926-61) 22

A wide variety of statutory changes have been made blurring the line between district court-level jurisdiction and county court-level jurisdiction. In eight counties, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, has been transferred to the district court:

Bowie (5th, 102nd, 202nd District Courts) - art. 1970-306

Cass (5th District Court) - Acts 1879, ch. 25, p. 21; Acts 1971, ch. 273, p. 1198 23

Falls (82nd District Court) - Acts 1917, ch. 89, p. 243; Acts 1975, ch. 39, p. 84

In another county, all county court civil and criminal cases appealed from justice of the peace courts, except probate and eminent domain, have been transferred to the district court, and the two levels of courts have concurrent jurisdiction in juvenile delinquency cases and in cases where the county court would have had original criminal jurisdiction:

Red River (102nd District Court) - art. 1970-314a 27

All civil jurisdiction of the county court, except probate and eminent domain, has been transferred to the district court in four counties:

Finally, in six counties, the general jurisdiction in eminent domain cases alone has been transferred from the county to the district courts by special statutes. In 1971, all "constitutional" county courts were divested of eminent domain jurisdiction (art. 3266a):

Tarrant - art. 1970-62.1 31

Rather than transfer jurisdiction absolutely from the county court to the district court, the legislature has in several instances given both the district and county courts concurrent jurisdiction in certain matters. Seven district courts have concurrent criminal jurisdiction with the county court in matters normally in the county court:

COUNTY-LEVEL COURTS

Generally speaking, "constitutional" county courts have concurrent jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy is $200 or more and less than $500, general jurisdiction over probate cases and exclusive original jurisdiction over all misdemeanors whose punishment for the offense upon conviction is by fine exceeding $200 or where a jail sentence not to exceed two years may be imposed. However, the county courts do not have criminal jurisdiction where a criminal district court exists unless expressly authorized by statute (Tex. Const. art. V, sec. 16). County courts generally have appellate jurisdiction over cases tried originally in the justice of the peace and municipal courts upon trial de novo.

In general, county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with district courts in civil matters where the amount in controversy is at least $500 and not more than $5,000. Other jurisdiction of a county court at law is, broadly speaking, either carved out of the "constitutional" county court's regular jurisdiction or shared with it (concurrent).

The jurisdiction of county courts at law and their relation to the "constitutional" county courts takes many forms. In the creation of three county courts at law, all civil, criminal and probate jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law:

County Court at Law of Houston County (art. 1970-365)

County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County (art. 1970-361)

County Court at Law of Reeves County (art. 1970-373)

34

In the creation of eighteen county courts at law, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law and it was provided that the courts would have concurrent jurisdiction in probate matters:

County Court at Law No. 4 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301e.1)

County Court at Law No. 6 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301f)

County Court at Law of Brazos County (art. 1970-359)

County Court at Law No. 2 of Collin County (art. 1970-362a)

35

County Court at Law No. 1 of El Paso County (arts. 1970-128, 1970-141.1)

County Court at Law of Walker County (art. 1970-367)

County Court at Law of Webb County (art. 1970-360)

35

One county court at law was created to exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in all civil and criminal matters, which had earlier been transferred from the county court to the district court. The county court at law and county court have concurrent probate jurisdiction:

County Court at Law of Comal County (art. 1970-368)

The legislature provided, in the creation of three county courts at law, that all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to the county court at law, and that the judge of the county court at law could "act for" the constitutional county judge in probate matters:

County Court at Law No. 3 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301d)

County Court of Jefferson County at Law (arts. 1970-112, 1970-113)

37

County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 (art. 1970-126a) 37

For four county courts at law, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to the county court at law:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Bexar County (arts. 1970-64, 1970-301)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301) 38

County Court at Law of Grayson County (art. 1970-332)

In one county, all civil, criminal and juvenile jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to the county court at law, and it was provided that the courts were to have concurrent jurisdiction in eminent domain cases:

County Court at Law of Taylor County (art. 1970-343) 39

Five county courts at law were created with the provision that all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law and the courts would have concurrent jurisdiction in both probate and eminent domain cases:

County Court at Law No. 3 of Nueces County (arts. 1970-339B, 1970-339C)
County Court at Law No. 1 of Travis County (arts. 1970-324, 1970-324d)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Travis County (arts. 1970-324a, 1970-324d) 40
County Court at Law No. 3 of Travis County (arts. 1970-324a.1, 1970-324d)
County Court at Law No. 4 of Travis County (arts. 1970-324a.2, 1970-324d)

In one instance, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law, the courts have concurrent jurisdiction in probate and eminent domain and the county court at law is instructed to give preference to original jurisdiction criminal cases:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County (arts. 1970-339, 1970-339A, 1970-339C) 41

Similarly, another county court at law in the same county was transferred all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, the courts have concurrent jurisdiction in probate and eminent domain and the county court at law is instructed to give preference to civil cases and criminal cases appealed from courts of inferior jurisdiction:

County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County (arts. 1970-339A, 1970-339C) 42

When the four Harris County civil courts at law were created, it was provided that all civil and eminent domain jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to them:

County Civil Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County (art. 1970-79)
County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County (art. 1970-110d) 43
County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County (art. 1970-110e)
County Civil Court at Law No. 4 of Harris County (art. 1970-110f)

For one county court at law, all civil jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to it, and it was provided that the courts would have concurrent criminal jurisdiction:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Tarrant County (arts. 1970-33, 1970-34) 44

For another in the same county, all civil jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law and it was provided that the courts would have concurrent probate jurisdiction:

County Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62.2) 45

Eminent domain jurisdiction was transferred to two county courts at law, and in all other matters the county court at law and "constitutional" county court have concurrent jurisdiction:

County Court at Law of McLennan County (art. 1970-298b) 46

County Court at Law No. 2 of McLennan County (art. 1970-298d) 46

In twenty-four instances, the "constitutional" county court and the county court(s) at law have concurrent jurisdiction in all matters:

In two counties, concurrent jurisdiction may be exercised by the "constitutional" county court and the county court at law in all matters except probate and eminent domain, of which the county court retains exclusive jurisdiction (eminent domain jurisdiction was transferred out of all "constitutional" county courts by general law in 1971):

County Court at Law of Nolan County (art. 1970-347)

County Court at Law of Potter County (art. 1970-311a) 48

In one county, concurrent jurisdiction may be exercised by the "constitutional" county court and the county court at law in all matters except probate, eminent domain, and civil cases $200 to $500, of which the county court retains exclusive jurisdiction (eminent domain jurisdiction was transferred out of all "constitutional" county courts by general law in 1971):

County Court at Law of Wichita County (art. 1970-166d) 49

Six of the county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in all matters except probate:

Two county courts at law were created with the proviso that they and the county court were to have concurrent jurisdiction in all matters, but that no probate cases were to be filed in the county court at law:

County Court No. 1 of Galveston County
(art. 1970-342a) 52

County Court No. 2 of Galveston County
(art. 1970-342b)

In three counties, the probate jurisdiction of the county court has been vested in specialized probate courts. Under the provisions of a constitutional amendment adopted in 1973, proceedings in these specialized probate courts are on the record and appeals therefrom are to appropriate court of civil appeals rather than to the district court on trial de novo as is the requirement for probate cases tried in the "constitutional" county courts. The statutes creating six of these probate courts provide that they are to have concurrent probate jurisdiction only with the "constitutional" county court:

Probate Court of Dallas County (art. 1970-31a) 53

Probate Court No. 2 of Dallas County
(arts. 1970-31a, 1970-31b)

Probate Court No. 3 of Dallas County

(art. 1970-345)

One probate court has concurrent jurisdiction only with the "constitutional" county court and is to have "primary" responsibility at all times for all mental illness proceedings:

Probate Court No. 3 of Harris County
(art. 1970-110a.3) 54

Another specialized probate court, however, has concurrent jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in all matters, but only probate cases are to be filed in the probate court:

Probate and County Court of Galveston
County (art. 1970-342) 55

Some county courts at law have been created primarily to handle criminal cases. Most of these (22) are limited to criminal cases, concurrent with the "constitutional" county court:

County (art. 1970-31.11)

County Criminal Court No. 3 of Dallas

County Criminal Court at Law No. 7 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c.2)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 8 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c.3)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 9 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c.3)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 10 of Harris County (art. 1970-110c.4)

County Criminal Court No. 1 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62a)

County Criminal Court at Law No. 2 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62b)

Four county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in criminal matters, and further have sole jurisdiction of appeals from justice of the peace and municipal courts:

County Criminal Court No. 4 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62d)

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS

Justice of the peace courts have original jurisdiction in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy does not exceed $500 and in criminal misdemeanors where punishment is by fine only not to exceed $200. The justice of the peace courts also function as small claims courts in disputes over unpaid wages and salaries where the contested amount does not exceed $200 and in controversies over uncollected bills where the amount does not exceed $150. Trials in justice of the peace courts are not of record. Appeals from these courts are upon trial de novo in the county court, the county court at law, or the district court.

In 32 counties, the county court by special statute has been given concurrent civil jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in that county:

Finally, one county court at law has been given concurrent jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts in the county in criminal matters only:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Montgomery County (art. 1970-363)] 62

MUNICIPAL COURTS

Municipal courts have original and exclusive jurisdiction over purported violations of city ordinances and concurrent jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts over state misdemeanors occuring within the jurisdiction of the municipality where punishment upon conviction is by fine only not to exceed $200.

Trials in all but seven municipal courts are not of record with appeals therefrom going to the county court, the county court at law, or the district court upon trial de novo. The municipal courts of El Paso, Houston, Longview, Lubbock, Midland, Sweetwater and Wichita Falls, were created by special statutes as municipal courts of record with appeals therefrom going to the county court on the record perfected in the municipal court.

Article 200a, V.T.C.S., establishes nine administrative judicial districts in the State for administrative purposes. In each such district an active or retired district judge or an active or retired appellate judge with judicial experience on a district court serves as the Presiding Judge upon appointment by the Governor.

The Presiding Judge convenes an annual conference of the judges in the administrative district to consult on the state of business in the courts. The conference is empowered to adopt rules for the administration of cases in the district. The Presiding Judge may assign active or retired district judges residing within the administrative district to any of the district courts within the administrative district. The Presiding Judge of one administrative district may request the Presiding Judge of another administrative district to assign district judges of that district to sit in the district court located in the administrative district of the Presiding Judge making the request.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Texas convenes an annual conference of the nine Presiding Judges to determine the need for assignment of judges, and to promote the uniform administration of the assignment of judges. The Chief Justice is empowered to assign judges of one administrative district for service in another whenever such assignments are necessary for the prompt and efficient administration of justice.

Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 98, ch. 45, eff. April 5, 1977.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS, STUDIES AND REPORTS AFFECTING THE JUDICIAL BRANCH

REPORT OF THE OFFICE OF COURT ADMINISTRATION
1980

Article 2328b, V.T.C.S., provides for the Office of Court Administration of the Texas Judicial System to operate at the direction and under the supervision of the Texas Supreme Court and to perform the duties provided by the Act to ensure the efficient administration of the Texas Judicial System and to provide the necessary staff functions for the efficient operation of the Texas Judicial Council.

Reporting Systems

Under the authority of article 2328a, sec. 5, V.T.C.S., which provides for the reporting of statistical data and other information pertaining to the amount and character of the business transacted by the courts, the office receives approximately 2,000 reports each month from the courts of the State. These reports are checked upon receipt for internal inconsistencies and entered into a computerized data system maintained through an interagency agreement with the Texas Department of Water Resources. This provides ready access to the current status of the state of the dockets of the courts throughout the State on a county by county basis. Numerous requests are received and complied with throughout the year on this type of information. The monthly reports are submitted to the office on official forms, revised effective January 1, 1980, developed in consultation with advisory committees of local court officials. These include an eight-page report for the activities of the district courts, a five-page report for county level courts, and one-page reports for the justice of the peace and municipal courts.

Annual reports on court activities are received from the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals.

From the statistics reported to the office on the monthly district court reporting forms, a monthly summary is compiled for each of the nine administrative judicial districts of the State. These reports contain information on the number of cases pending at the beginning of the month, new cases added during the month, number of cases disposed of during the month, and the total number of cases pending at the end of the month. The report is provided to the presiding judges of the administrative judicial districts by the 10th of the month following the month the statistics are received to provide them with current statistical district court caseload data on all counties within their administrative judicial district. This enables the presiding judges to exercise the managerial oversight necessary to ensure the effective and efficient administration of justice within their individual administrative judicial districts.

This office also maintains a monthly reporting system for the courts of civil appeals to aid the Supreme Court in its responsibility of equalizing the dockets of the courts of civil appeals pursuant to art. 1738, V.T.C.S. A report is submitted to the office each month by each of the fourteen courts of civil appeals on an individual case format. These reports are compiled and analyzed and a monthly report is prepared for the Supreme Court on the status of all cases pending in the fourteen courts of civil appeals. These reports contain pertinent data needed by the Supreme Court to make informed decisions in fulfilling its responsibilities in the equalization of dockets. Following the Supreme Court's determination on the transfer of cases, this office contacts each court of civil appeals to effect the transfer of specific cases between the various courts. During the calendar year 1980, 240 cases were ordered transferred by the Supreme Court among the courts as follows:

January -
25 from 4th (San Antonio) to 11th (Eastland)
25 from 4th (San Antonio) to 10th (Waco)
1 from 3rd (Austin) to 10th (Waco)
25 from 3rd (Austin) to 9th (Beaumont)

March -
1 from 3rd (Austin) to 9th (Beaumont)

May -
20 from 3rd (Austin) to 12th (Tyler)
20 from 5th (Dallas) to 6th (Texarkana)
25 from 7th (Amarillo) to 11th (Eastland)
30 from 13th (Corpus) to 9th (Beaumont)

June -
1 from 12th (Tyler) to 3rd (Austin)

July -
15 from 2nd (Fort Worth) to 11th (Eastland)

August -
1 from 5th (Dallas) to 11th (Eastland)

September -
1 from 2nd (Fort Worth) to 11th (Eastland)

October -
25 from 4th (San Antonio) to 11th (Eastland)
25 from 3rd (Austin) to 10th (Waco)

Another reporting system maintained by this office is that of the Juvenile Probation System. Approximately 205 reports are received each month from the 180 juvenile probation offices in the State. This 4-page report is checked for accuracy and entered into the computerized data bank for current retrieval to comply with requests received by this office concerning juvenile probation activity.

The above described statistics and information are published on an annual basis in two formal reports, one on the court activity and a separate one on juvenile probation activity.

The Fifty-first Annual Report of the Texas Judicial Council and the Third Annual Report of the Office of Court Administration were published as a single report in June, 1980. Containing 697 pages, the report includes statistical data on and analysis of court activity at all levels of courts in the State of Texas for calendar year 1979. Approximately 18,000 monthly statistical reports were compiled and validated during 1979 to produce the statistical data in the Annual Report. Also in the Annual Report are analyses of recent legislation, recent Attorney General's Opinions affecting court operations and articles on the variances in subject-matter jurisdiction of Texas trial courts. The report includes summaries of the structure, responsibilities and activities of eleven agencies which work within the Texas Judicial System; a thorough descriptive analysis of the judicial system; and a comprehensive directory of judges, clerks, and court coordinators/administrators in the State. Also included are statistical analyses of assignments by presiding judges of the State's nine administrative judicial districts. The Annual Report was sent to all judges and clerks, members of the Legislature, state and federal agencies, criminal justice planning units, local officials, and libraries. Approximately 4,300 copies were distributed.

Published and distributed this year was the fourth annual report on juvenile probation in Texas. Entitled Texas Juvenile Probation Report, this publication contains statistics, analyses, and explanatory text concerning juvenile probation activity and juvenile courts in the State. This report was distributed to all juvenile court judges, juvenile probation officers, members of the Legislature, state and federal agencies, criminal justice planning units, local officials, and libraries. Approximately 1,500 copies were distributed.

The production of the Annual Report and the Juvenile Probation Report is primarily an in-house project - copy is delivered to the printers in camera-ready form after being prepared by the staff of the office.

Legislative Services

Preparation for the 67th Legislature occupied much of the staff's time during the past several months. During the calendar year 1980, this office has worked closely with the staffs of the legislative committees on interim studies and reports which will be presented to the 67th Legislature. The staff has drafted over 40 bills for members of the Legislature, judges, and organizations to consider for introduction during the 67th Legislature. The staff has provided assistance to the interim legislative study committees concerning the judiciary, including the House Judiciary and Judicial Affairs Committees, the Senate Jurisprudence Committee and special committees on the Crime Victims Compensation Act and implementation of S.J.R. 36, which will grant intermediate criminal appellate jurisdiction to the courts of civil appeals. The staff also prepares a daily memo analyzing prefiled bills which affect the judicial branch of government and distributes them to the justices of the Supreme Court, the presiding judges of the administrative judicial districts, and other interested officials of the judiciary. This daily memo will be continued throughout the session, reporting on the progress of bills affecting the judiciary.

State Appropriation Budget Estimates for the Judicary

The Act establishing the Office of Court Administration provides that the office is to prepare and submit budget estimates for the maintenance and operation of the judicial branch of government to the Legislature. In fulfilling this responsibility for the 67th Legislature in 1980, the Office of Court Administration has worked with the staffs of the Legislative Budget Board and the Governor's Office of Budget and Planning to coordinate the preparation of the budget estimates by the various courts and judicial agencies. Staff members personally conferred with personnel and justices of each of the courts of civil appeals, the Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeals, and the state-wide judicial agencies located in Austin to provide technical assistance in the preparation of their budgets. This has opened important lines of communication among all judicial agencies to ensure that the requests for necessary financing for the efficient operation of the judicial branch of government are properly presented to the Legislature.

Support to Other Agencies

Staff members of the office belong to the Texas Criminal Justice Information Users Group (TCJIUG), an incorporated organization consisting of city, county, state, and federal criminal justice agencies in Texas which are involved or contemplating involvement in a computerized system or which use or have access to such a system. This requires attendance at several meetings a year and the usual committee work and assignments between such meetings.

The staff of this office also conducts lectures at seminars and schools sponsored by the Texas Justice of the Peace and Constables Association to aid in providing the schooling mandated by art. 5972, V.T.C.S. and at seminars for municipal court judges conducted under the provisions of art. 1200f, V.T.C.S. Presentations are also made at County and District Clerks Association conferences and the Texas Court Clerk's Association seminars and meetings to provide technical assistance and encourage the improvement of reporting rates on the monthly court activity reports previously discussed.

This office also maintains a close working relationship with, and provides information on the judicial branch of government and court activities to many other State agencies and professional organizations whose work requires a knowledge of the workings of the judiciary, such as the Texas Youth Council, the Local Records Management Division of the State Library, the Criminal Justice Division of the Governor's Office and the Justice of the Peace Training Center. It also provides information on the Texas Judicial System to many individual citizens of Texas and other State and private agencies. It maintains contact with the State Court Administrative Office of other states and with the National Center for State Courts to keep abreast of new developments in the administration of justice in other states and to provide them with information on the Texas Judicial System.

Implementation of S.J.R. 36

The staff spent extensive time both before and after the convening of the 67th Legislature in preparing appropriate legislative recommendations to implement S.J.R. 36.

Introduced in the 67th Legislature as Senate Bill 265 by Senator Ray Farabee, this legislation implements S.J.R. 36, the constitutional amendment adopted by the people in the November 1980 General Election to grant intermediate appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases to the courts of civil appeals and rename them courts of appeals.

Working from the recommendations of a special study conducted during Spring, 1980, by the National Center for State Courts, the Office's legal staff prepared a proposed draft for the necessary legislation during the summer.

In November, Chief Justice Greenhill appointed four task forces committees to formulate recommendations to the legislature for implementation of S.J.R. 36. The committees were the Committee to Implement Statutory Changes in the Code of Criminal Procedure; the Committee to Consider Number of Judges to be Added, Staff Support, Equalization of the Dockets and other Planning; the Committee on Presentation of the Budget and Other Matters to the Legislature; and the Committee on Implementation of Automation, Library and Other Equipment Needs. These committees met throughout the winter and with the assistance of the Office of Court Administration, prepared varous bill drafts, budgets, reports and recommendations for legislative consideration.

During the session itself, the Office maintained close liaison with the sponsors of the bill, Senator Ray Farabee and Representative Bob Maloney, the Legislative Budget Board and the Legislative Council.

Senate Bill 265, as finally passed and signed by the Governor, amends 96 articles of civil statutes or codes and 52 articles of the Code of Criminal Procedure. Many of the amendments are minor changes of the names of the courts or clarifing that certain civil statutes apply to the courts of appeals only in the consideration of civil cases. Other amendments are to conform the language of various statutes to provisions of the constitution adopted since the statutes wre enacted. More major amendments provide the number of judges added to the courts of appeals, procedure for the appeal of a criminal case from the trial court to a court of appeals, the basic procedural vehicle for appeal therefrom to the Court of Criminal Appeals, and the allocation of cases currently pending in the Court of Criminal Appeals to the courts of appeals.

Senate Bill 265 becomes effective September 1, 1981.

Continuing Legal Education of Municipal Court Judges

The Council devoted much attention to the implementation of Article 1200f (Continuing Legal Education for Municipal Court Judges). Enacted by the 65th Legislature, the law directs the Council to discover and encourage the development of courses; promulgate rules and guidelines for the courses; approve or disapprove accreditation of the courses and make an annual report to the Governor, the Attorney General and the City Attorney of the cities of those judges who have not attended a course. The Council is also empowered to grant individual judges waivers from the provisions of the law. An Accreditation Committee composed of Justice Barrow, Chairman, and Council members Mr. Cook and Mr. Sewell were appointed to make recommendations to the Council on the accreditation of courses and the granting of waivers. During the year, 14 courses accredited by the Council were held:

Court Fees Study

At the request of Supreme Court Justice Jack Pope, the Council appointed a committee to study the amount of fees statutorily established for the clerks of court. In reporting back to the Council, the committee observed that the fees for the Supreme Court and the Courts of Civil Appeals have remained unchanged since 1947 and 1949 respectively (Article 3923, 3923a and Article 3924). However, fees for the District and County Clerks were extensively revised by the Legislature in 1965, 1967 and 1977.

Due to this recent attention by the Legislature to the trial court fees, the committee determined to limit its recommendations to the statutes establishing fees in the appellate courts.

The initial observation of the committee was that the inflationary pressures over the 30 years, since these appellate courts fees were last changed, alone indicate that they should be revised upward.

In arriving at recommended amounts for the fees, the committee adopted a philosophy that while the maintenance of courts available for the resolution of disputes between its citizens is a function of government properly financed by all the citizens through tax revenues, the particular citizens who avail themselves of those courts for the resolution of their disputes should make some contribution to the operation of the courts. The committee therefore recommended and the Council approved, recommendations to the 67th Texas Legislature that the various fees for the appellate courts, as provided in Articles 3923, 3923a and 3924 be increased to the amounts indicated in bill drafts incorporated as a part of the committee's report.

Courts of Civil Appeals - Place of Sitting

At its February meeting, the Council recommended to the Legislature a state-wide law allowing each Court of Civil Appeals to sit in any county of its district, at the discretion of the court.

Interstate Compact on Nonresident Violators

After study by a committee, the Council endorsed the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration's model Nonresident Violator Compact.

The Nonresident Violator Compact is an agreement among States to assure the clearance of traffic court cases initiated against nonresidents. Procedures to accomplish this result in: offering the same privileges of later court appearance to nonresidents that presently are offered to State residents; issuance of traffic citations to nonresidents under most conditions in place of physical arrest and mandatory immediate court appearance. Studies have shown that it increases time for other duties by traffic police that formerly was devoted to arrest and arraignment of alleged traffic law offenders; and provides other advantages to motorists and State and local highway safety functions.

Judicial Financing

In June the Council adopted a committee report supporting the following concepts in judicial financing:

1. That the State Judicial System of Texas be totally funded by state appropriations.

2. That a mixing of funding sources such as present county-provided supplemental salaries to court of civil appeals justices and district judges be prohibited.

3. That all judges and employees of the same rank, classification or responsibility be paid the same across the state, without distinction by location.

4. That for purposes of these recommendations, "State Judicial System" includes:

   (a) Justices and all employees of the Supreme Court of Texas, the Court of Criminal Appeals and the Courts of Civil Appeals;

   (b) District judges; and

   (c) for each district judge:

      (1) an official court reporter and
      (2) a court aide, whether called a secretary, administrative aide or court coordinator.

5. That for purposes of these recommendations, "State Judicial System" does not include judges and employees of:

   (a) probate courts;

   (b) county courts at law;

   (c) "constitutional" county courts;

   (d) justices of the peace courts; or

   (e) municipal courts.

6. That the Legislature enact a statute setting out a salary structure to provide:

   (a) a salary for justices of the courts of civil appeals to equal to 95% of the salary of a justice of the supreme court.

   (b) a salary for district judges equal to 90% of the salary of a justice of the supreme court; and

   (c) an additional $1,500 per year for the chief justices of the supreme court and courts of civil appeals and the presiding judge of the court of criminal appeals.

7. That each county be required to provide a bailiff for each district judge holding court in that county.

Constitutional Amendments

At its June meeting, the Council reiterated its support for adoption of S.J.R. 36 in the November election, to grant intermediate criminal appellate jurisdiction to the Courts of Civil Appeals.

The Council also discussed H.J.R. 97, a proposed constitutional amendment which would, if adopted, provide for appeals by both the State and the defendant in criminal cases from certain pretrial orders of the trial court. Concern was expressed regarding the ability of this proposed amendment to create a virtual bottleneck and a fathomless backlog in the courts if it was adopted by the voting public. The Council voted that H.J.R. 97 not be recommended for adoption in its present form.

Retention or Destruction of Case Records in the Courts of Civil Appeals

At the request of the Council, the Local Records Section of the Archives Division of the Texas State Library conducted a study on the preservation of case records in the Courts of Civil Appeals.

The immediate cause for the study was the situation facing many of the courts with regard to storage facilities for records of disposed cases. Requests from these courts to the Texas Judicial Council for assistance in dealing with the lack of storage space prompted the Council to seek help from the Texas State Library, which operates through its Local Records Department of the Archives Division a statewide network of regional depositories. Although the regional depositories were established to house records of historical value, and the historical value of the civil appeals records had not been established, the Department accessioned on a provisional basis over 1000 linear feet of records from six courts. This was done as a response to an emergency need of the courts for relief, the decision on permanently retaining the records in the depositories to depend upon an appraisal of their long term historical value. Since space in the depositories is finite as it is in the courts, it was understood that these transfers were not a permanent solution, and that in the larger courts the relief given might suffice for only months.

The ultimate goal of the program recommended by the report would be to appraise the records of the Courts of Civil Appeals to determine which could be destroyed. This calls for a determination to be made of the absolute value of the records versus the cost of preserving them. Considerations are the value of the records to judges and lawyers as legal documents as well as the value to scholars as historical documents.

A committee was appointed to study and report back on the conclusions of the library's report, which called for a state level policy, program, or responsible office to serve the records keeping needs of the court system, with mandatory retention periods and legislative findings for statewide action.

Revision of Reporting Forms

The forms used to collect statistics on court activity had been unchanged for five years. During this period various laws had been enacted which were not reflected on the reporting forms. Several conferences were held during 1979 with other State agencies who use the statistics, in an attempt to determine their projected needs in court statistics for the next five years. Next, meetings were held with representatives of the judges and clerks who fill out the forms to determine what changes needed to be made. The resulting revised forms were then approved by the Council and began to be used by the courts of the state effective January 1, 1980.

Reports

The Fifty-first Annual Report of the Texas Judicial Council, including the Third Annual Report of the Office of Court Administration was published in the Spring. Containing 697 pages, the report contains statistical data on court activity at all levels in the State of Texas for calendar year 1979. Also included are statistical analyses and articles on recent legislation, recent court decisions, Attorney General's Opinions and variances in subject matter jurisdiction of Texas trial courts. The Annual Report was sent to all judges and clerks, members of the Legislature, state agencies, criminal justice planning units, local officials and libraries. Approximately 4,300 copies were distributed.

Salaries of Presiding Judges

Pursuant to the authority vested in it by Art. 200a, Sec. 11(a), Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, the Council set the annual salaries of the Presiding Judges of the Administrative Judicial Districts of Texas, for the biennium September 1, 1979 through August 31, 1981, at three thousand dollars ($3,000) per year, except where otherwise provided by law.

Goals For The Improvement Of the Texas Judiciary*

1. Providing trials for all civil cases within six months after filing.
2. Making the state court system independent from financial reliance on the federal and local governments.
3. Develop an effective small claims court system with appropriate jurisdiction limitations.
4. Simplify the venue statutes in Texas.
5. Make available on the basis of local option courts of record on the municipal court and justice of the peace court levels.
6. Establish more consistency in sentencing criminal cases.
7. Establish population and geographic guidelines for the creation of new courts.

*Proposed by President Ben Z. Grant on September 26, 1980 as specific methods to improve the administration of justice of this State and formally adopted for publication in this Annual Report by the Texas Judicial Council on April 10, 1981.

Article 2324b requires each person who desires to engage in the practice of shorthand reporting for use in litigation in the courts of this State to be certified by the Supreme Court upon the recommendation of the Committee. The Committee is charged with the responsibilities of reviewing applications of persons who were engaged in court reporting prior to the enactment of the statute for certification without examination; developing and administering tests on the qualifications and skills for court reporters as set out in the law; collecting fees; certifying successful applicants to the Supreme Court for official certification; conducting hearings on complaints filed against certified shorthand reporters; and revoking certification of reporters for unprofessional conduct, appealable to the district courts.

Court reporters who were actively engaged in the practice of shorthand reporting for use in litigation in the courts of this State prior to the effective date of the Act, August 29, 1977, may apply for certification without necessity of taking an examination, under the provisions of sec. 16(a) of the Act. Since beginning operations, the Committee has offiicially recommended 1,009 persons now certified under the provisions of sec. 16(a).

The Committee administers tests to determine the qualifications of other persons applying for certification as provided for in sec. 12 of the Act. During 1980, it conducted six (6) examinations for 291 applicants. As not all of the applicants were successful at the first or subsequent exams, the 291 applicants represented 199 individuals. Of these, 108 successfully completed both portions of the test and were officially certified as shorthand reporters. During this same period the Committee conducted 2 formal complaint hearings.

As of the date of this report, a total of 1,332 persons are certified as certified shorthand reporters and are therefore eligible to engage in the practice of shorthand reporting for use in litigation in the courts of this State.

RECENT COURT DECISIONS
Selected Decisions Affecting Court Operations During 1980

JURISDICTION

A district court acts without jurisdiction insofar as it attempts to set bail in a theft case that has originally been filed as a complaint in the justice of the peace court. Only the justice court has jurisdiction of that complaint until it is dismissed by the court or superseded by the grand jury. Ex parte Mitchell, 601 S.W.2d 376 (Tex. Crim. App. 1980).

The county court at law of Walker County was created by article 1970-367 of the Revised Civil Statutes, and section 3(b) of that statute conferred on it jurisdiction to hear divorce cases, including adjustment of property rights pursuant to divorce. The jurisdiction conferred by statute is concurrent with that of the district court, and the jurisdiction of the district court is not diminished in any regard. The Legislature has power to create statutory courts to have concurrent jurisdiction with a constitutional district or county court. The Legislature cannot restrict the jurisdiction of the district and county courts by statute, because any such statute would be unconstitutional in that it would conflict with the constitutional grants of jurisdiction to such courts. Fleming v. Fleming, 595 S.W.2d 199 (Tex. Civ. App.--Waco, 1980, no writ).

COURT PROCEEDINGS

When the defendant does not read, speak, or understand English but the defendant's counsel is bilingual and translates the whole proceedings, there is no due process violation if the defendant is fully admonished of his rights by the court through the attorney. The only basis for providing an interpreter is the constitutional and statutory guarantee of confrontation of witnesses under the United States and Texas constitutions. The right to an interpreter may be waived. An interpreter other than the defendant's attorney would add nothing to ensure that the defendant voluntarily and intelligently waived his rights of confrontation and cross-examination of witnesses, and a trial court does not err in accepting a plea of nolo contendere in such circumstances. Briones v. State, 595 S.W.2d 546 (Tex. Crim. App. 1980).

When the defendant has filed a motion to dimiss an indictment for failure to comply with the Speedy Trial Act, the trial court has orally announced that it would dismiss the indictment, the notes on the docket sheet and the minutes of the court reflect that the indictment was dismissed, but the trial court has on reflection entered an order that the defendant's motion to set aside the indictment will not be granted, the defendant is entitled to a writ of mandamus ordering the trial court to dismiss the cause. If the trial court having jurisdiction over a criminal case dismisses the indictment, no case is then pending against defendant, no jurisdiction remains in the dismissing court, and such court is without jurisdiction to reinstate the indictment. Any order purporting to reinstate the indictment is void. While it might be argued that an oral decision of dismissal by itself does not amount to a judgment or order of dismissal or that a docket entry is not part of the official record, it is the minutes of the court that constitute the official record of the court. The entry of the order in the minutes showed that the indictment was validly dismissed even in the absence of a written order, and the court lost jurisdiction of the case. Haley v. Lewis, 604 S.W.2d 194 (Tex. Crim. App. 1980).

Article 3708, Revised Civil Statutes, sets witness fees at $1.00 for each day they are in attendance on court and 6¢ per mile traveled to and from court. The court cannot tax as costs fees for a witness other than those provided for in article 3708. Armes v. Campbell, 608 S.W.2d 692 (Tex. Civ. App.--El Paso 1980, writ ref'd n.r.e.).

A local court rule on blanket dismissals provided that, although counsel might be notified by postcard and a list of the cases proposed to be dismissed might be posted, the rule itself constitutes notice of hearings and counsel is required to keep informed of how long each case has been on file. The system provided for blanket dismissals after the case had been pending with no trial setting. Such a local rule is valid, and a prior suit was properly dismissed under a blanket order pursuant to the local rule. Schlosser v. Tropoli, 609 S.W.2d 255 (Tex. Civ. App.--Houston [14th Dist.] 1980, no writ).

Reinstatement of a case under Rule 165a, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, applies only to court-initiated dismissals under that rule. That procedure does not apply if the dismissal was ordered under the court's inherent power to dismiss for want of prosecution. When the appeal bond is not filed within 30 days after the dismissal order, the court of civil appeals has no jurisdiction to hear the appeal. Clifton v. Haymes, 608 S.W.2d 272 (Tex. Civ. App.--Eastland 1980, no writ).

JUDGES

Under article 200a, Section 6, Revised Civil Statutes, a district judge has a mandatory duty to request the presiding judge of the administrative district in which his court sits to assign another judge of the administrative district to hear a party's motion to recuse him. The right to have the point of error considered on appeal was not waived by the failure of the movant in the trial court to seek a writ of mandamus to compel the judge to have another judge hear the motion. Society of Separationists, Inc. v. Strobel, 593 S.W.2d 855 (Tex. Civ. App.--Austin 1980, no writ).

The age limitation of 70 years found in article 200a, Section 5, Revised Civil Statutes, applies only to former district judges and does not apply to retired or "regular" district judges. A motion to recuse is properly overruled when retired or "regular" district judges are sitting. Todd v. State, 598 S.W.2d 286 (Tex. Crim. App. 1980); Taylor v. State, 599 S.W.2d 831 (Tex. Crim. App. 1980).

Article 200a, Section 6, Revised Civil Statutes (providing for appointment of a judge to hear a motion to recuse a district judge) does not require that legally sufficient grounds be asserted in the motion but simply provides that on filing of any motion to recuse, assignment of a visiting judge from another court in the administrative district is required. The motion to recuse the district judge may be urged at any time, including on motion for new trial as in this case. Robb v. Robb, 605 S.W.2d 390 (Tex. Civ. App.--El Paso 1980, no writ).

A motion to recuse a judge does not of itself disqualify the local judge, and by voluntarily submitting the motion to the judge sought to be recused, a party waives the duty of that judge to assign another judge to hear the motion. There must be a request that a visiting judge hear the motion for the district judge to have a mandatory duty to request the presiding judge of his administrative district to assign another judge of the administrative district to hear a party's motion to recuse the judge under article 200a, Section 6, Revised Civil Statutes. Wiegand v. Wiegand, 606 S.W.2d 352 (Tex. Civ. App.--San Antonio 1980, no writ).

SPEEDY TRIAL ACT

The time periods stated in article 32A.02, Code of Criminal Procedure (Speedy Trial Act), run from July 1, 1978, the Speedy Trial Act's effective date for cases pending on that date. On motion to dismiss the cause under the Act, the state's failure to state that it was ready then and had been ready within 120 days from July 1, 1978 and failure to offer evidence to show why it was not ready within 120 days so as to bring it within any exception of the Act entitles the defendant to be discharged under the provisions of the Act. Pate v. State, 592 S.W.2d 620 (Tex. Crim. App. 1980).

A plea of guilty waives all rights granted by the Speedy Trial Act. A written pretrial motion raising the issue of the lack of a speedy trial and the trial court's permission to appeal do not alter the waiver effected by the guilty plea. Flores v. State, 606 S.W.2d 859 (Tex. Crim. App. 1980).

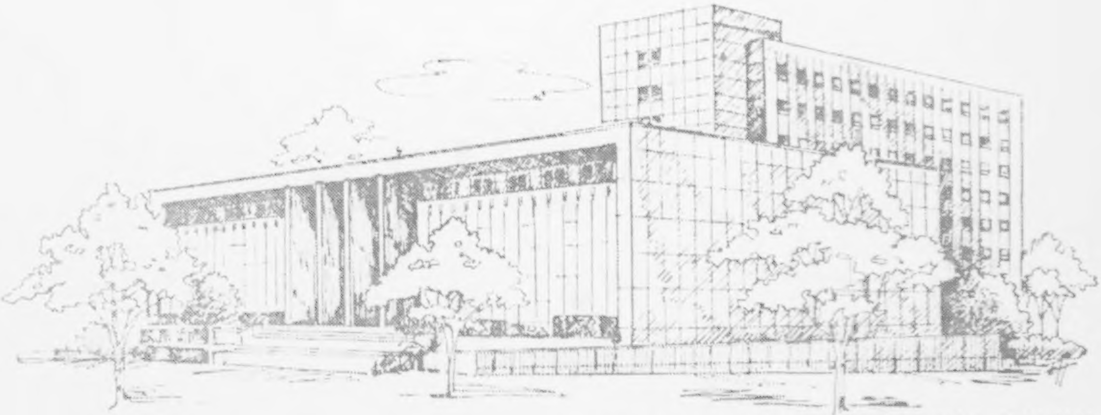
A plea of guilty constitutes a waiver of all rights afforded under the Speedy Trial Act. Luna v. State, 602 S.W.2d 267 (Tex. Crim. App. 1980).

COURT REPORTERS

Under Rule 215c, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, a party is entitled to take the deposition of a witness by non-stenographic means, including tape recording, providing the party seeking the deposition has complied with that Rule. A certified court reporter is not necessary to take the tape recorded deposition. Under the exception of Section 15 of article 2324b (the Court Reporter Certification Act), a full time employee of a party's attorney, who is also a notary public, is authorized to take the deposition and make the record. Burr v. Shannon, 593 S.W.2d 677 (Tex. 1980).

Where a verdict for the plaintiff was directed on January 31, 1977, but the judgment was not signed and not entered until May 21, 1980, and the court reporter had destroyed the official notes of the proceeding three years after the last date any testimony was taken, the cause would be reversed and remanded for new trial. The defendants cannot obtain a statement of facts for appeal through no fault of their own. The litigant who has prevailed has the duty to see that the judgment is signed and entered. The court reporter was free to destroy the notes after three years. Broaddus v. First State Bank, 605 S.W.2d 735 (Tex. Civ. App.--Fort Worth 1980, writ ref'd n.r.e.).

When an appellant has timely filed an uncontested affidavit of inability to pay costs of appeal or give security for such costs under Rule 355, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, and has had an order entered under Rule 380 that the reporter prepare the statement of facts without payment for it, the reporter who officially recorded the proceeding must prepare a narrative statement of facts for the appellant without charge. It makes no difference that the reporter has since resigned as the court's official reporter; the duty is continuing. Requiring the reporter to provide a free statement of facts does not unconstitutionally take the reporter's private property without just compensation because the reporter received the salaried and fee compensation as the official court reporter and providing statements of fact without further charge to indigents is a duty of office of the official court reporter compensated by her salary and other fees. The reporter is not denied due process because of lack of opportunity to contest the affidavit of inability to pay costs when the reporter had actual notice of the intent to file and the filing of the affidavit. Under Rule 355(c), the reporter could have appeared and contested the affidavit, had the reporter desired to do so. A writ of mandamus from the court of civil appeals to protect its jurisdiction will issue to compel the former official reporter to prepare a complete statement of facts in narrative form in duplicate. Loflin v. Weiss, 605 S.W.2d 377 (Tex. Civ. App.--Amarillo 1980, no writ).



SUPREME COURT BUILDING-AUSTIN

RECENT ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINIONS
Selected Opinions Affecting Court Operations During 1980

The authorization for the rendition of advisory opinions by the Attorney General is found in Section 22 of Article IV of the Texas Constitution and has been more specifically defined in article 4399, V.T.C.S. This is a quasi-judicial function, Glimpse v. Bexar County, 160 S.W.2d 996 (Tex. Civ. App.--San Antonio 1942, writ ref'd), and while the opinions do not have the force of law, they are entitled to be given considerable weight in determining proper construction of statutes. City of Houston v. Southern Pac. Transp. Co., 504 S.W.2d 554 (Tex. Civ. App.--Houston [14th] 1973, writ ref'd n.r.e.).

CONFIDENTIALITY OF RECORDS

ORD-236 March 27, 1980. Records of an adult probation office which indicate whether probationers are complying with the terms of their probation are records of the "judiciary" and thus not subject to the Open Records Act. It is within the court's discretion as to whether to release such information.

ORD-247 August 28, 1980. The names and addresses of retired appellate judges, which information is in the custody of the Judicial Retirement System, are excepted from disclosure by section 3(a)(1) of the Open Records Act, as information deemed confidential by statutory law, specifically by section 7 of article 6228k.

COURTS PROCEEDINGS

MW-133 January 29, 1980. A person convicted of misdemeanor DWI and whose sentence is probated under the terms of section 3 or section 3a of the Misdemeanor Adult Probation and Supervision Law, article 42.13, Code of Criminal Procedure, enacted by Senate Bill 844, Acts 1979, 66th Legislature, ch. 654, at 1514, is subject to having his operator's license automatically suspended under section 24, article 6687(b), V.T.C.S.

A person who receives probation under section 3d of article 42.13, Code of Criminal Procedure, which provides for conditional discharge on deferral of adjudication, is not subject to having his operator's license automatically suspended.

MW-184 May 28, 1980. A person granted probation under article 42.12, sections 3, 3a or article 42.13, sections 3, 3a of the Code of Criminal Procedure has a final conviction and, as such, should be assessed the costs provided in article 8309-1. A person granted probation under article 42.13, section 3d of the Code of Criminal Procedure does not have a final conviction and cannot be assessed article 8309-1 costs. Costs imposed by article 8309-1, V.T.C.S., may not be assessed on conviction of crimes committed before September 1, 1979.

MW-204 July 8, 1980. Amendments to article 42.13, Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, became effective on August 27, 1979, and persons convicted of driving while intoxicated on that date or thereafter are subject thereto.

MW-242 September 16, 1980. Article 26.05 of the Code of Criminal Procedure does not authorize payment of a court-appointed attorney's fees when his indigent client has not been accused of a criminal offense and no writ of habeas corpus has been filed. (An indigent was held in contempt of court in a civil case and confined in jail.)

MW-250 October 8, 1980. An active member of the United States armed forces, acting under federal law and pursuant to the valid orders of a superior, may not be compelled by a state to engage in jury service.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE

MW-185 May 28, 1980. Section 143A(a)(2) of article 6701d, V.T.C.S., which provides that on motion a licensed and otherwise qualified driver charged with a misdemeanor must be given an opportunity to purge the charge through a defensive driving course, does not unconstitutionally deprive a justice of the peace of judicial discretion. The section requires him to evaluate evidence presented by the defendant that he has successfully completed a defensive driving course.

MW-222 August 20, 1980. A justice of the peace is not authorized to collect restitution on behalf of the holder of a dishonored check.

MW-249 October 8, 1980. A justice of the peace is not authorized to charge a fee for filing a peace bond complaint.

JUVENILE PROCEEDINGS

MW-151 March 21, 1980. Title III of the Family Code does not repeal sections 21.302 through 21.304 of the Education Code, which established a procedure whereby the school attendance officer may proceed in juvenile court against a school age child who is reported to him as being insubordinate, disorderly, vicious, or immoral in conduct, or who persistently violates reasonable school rules, or who otherwise persistently misbehaves in such a manner as to be incorrigible.

OPINIONS OF THE COMMITTEE ON JUDICIAL ETHICS

1980

Upon the request of the members of the Judicial Section of the State Bar of Texas, the Supreme Court promulgated a Code of Judicial Conduct effective September 1, 1974. On November 9, 1976, responding to a resolution of the Judicial Section, certain amendments to the Code were adopted.

The Judicial Section of the State Bar of Texas has appointed a Committee on Judicial Ethics to render advisory opinions on the Code of Judicial Conduct. During the calendar year 1980, this Committee handled down several opinions, reproduced below.

OPINION NO. 49

Question: Is a judge subject to the Judicial Code of Conduct entitled to a referral fee under the following facts: 1) Prior to his appointment as judge, he represented a client in a workman's compensation case and in a third party action; 2) Also prior to his appointment, the judge referred such cases to another lawyer and at that time a referral agreement between them was made; 3) the litigation in both cases has now been completed resulting in an award of more than $1,000,000.00; 4) the attorney to whom the cases were referred reportedly has refused to pay the judge any referral fee?

Answer: The referral of cases by a judge prior to taking office does not constitute the practice of law and referral fees may be accepted without violation of either Article 319, Texas Revised Civil Statutes or the Code of Judicial Conduct.

OPINION NO. 50

Question: Is a judge subject to the Judicial Code of Conduct in violation of the Code if he supports a candidate for the office of Executive Chairman of a political party?

Answer: The Code of Judicial Conduct as amended February 18, 1977, does not specifically prohibit a judge from supporting a candidate for the office of Executive Chairman of his party; however, the Code in Canon 2A expressly states "He (a judge) should not lend the prestige of his office to advance the private interests of others." The Code in Canon 1 provides "A judge should participate in establishing, maintaining, and enforcing, and should himself observe, high standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary may be preserved." The Committee is of the further opinion that supporting a candidate for Executive Chairman of a political party is within the discretion of a judge provided the nature and type of support does not contravene Canon 1 and Canon 2A of the Code of Judicial Conduct.

OPINION NO. 51

Question: Would I, as a District Judge, be in violation of Canon 7 by accepting a position as treasurer of an ad hoc political organization, which confines itself to a "get out the vote" program for all Democratic candidates?

Answer: Canon 7 is limited to "any candidate for a judicial office." Since you are not a candidate for reelection, the restraints imposed by that Canon are not applicable to you at this time. Therefore, the mere acceptance by you of the office of treasurer of the organization described in your question would not be in violation of Canon 7. However, your acts and activities after you have accepted the office of treasurer may cause you to be in violation of Canon 5B(2), which, in relevant part, provides:

> "A judge should not solicit funds for any...political organization... or use or permit the use of his office for that purpose, but he may be listed as an officer...of such an organization."

The question asked by you does not set forth the manner in which the ad hoc political organization intends to "get out the vote". The majority of the Committee is of the opinion that if the nature of the activities of such political organization is to use your name or title in the literature sent out in the solicitation of funds, such activities, would be in violation of Canon 5B(2). The majority of the Committee is of the further opinion that there would not be a violation of Canon 5B(2) if you merely accepted the office of treasurer and performed the usual duties of such an office, and your name or title as "Judge" did not appear in the literature or other means of solicitation of money. Other members of the Committee are of the opinion that the office of the treasurer of any organization, by its very nature, involves soliciting of funds and since a treasurer is so integrally related to soliciting of funds, the acceptance of that office by a judge subject to the Code of Judicial Conduct would be in violation of Canon 5B(2).

OPINION NO. 52

Question: May a judge serve on a Board of Mental Health Mental Retardation Center (MHMR)?

Answer: Canon 5G of the Code of Judicial Conduct states as follows "A judge should not accept appointment to a government committee, commission, or other position that is concerned with issues of fact or policy on matters other than improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice", and Canon 5B(1) states "A judge should not serve if it is likely that the organization will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before him or will be regularly engaged in adversary proceedings in any court."

The Committee is not wholly aware of all the duties and responsibilities of the office, however, it is of the opinion that if such duties and responsibilities of the office do not contravene Canon 5G or Canon 5B(1), it would not be unethical to serve on the Mental Health Mental Retardation Board.

OPINION NO. 53(A)

Question: May a judge endorse a specific candidate or candidates?

Answer: The Code of Judicial Conduct as amended February 19, 1980, does not specifically prohibit a judge from supporting a candidate or candidates, however, the Code in Canon 2B expressly states "He (a judge) should not lend the prestige of his office to advance the private interests of others;." The Code in Canon 1 provides "A judge should participate in establishing, maintaining, and enforcing, and should himself observe, high standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary may be preserved". The Code further states in Canon 2A "A judge ...should conduct himself at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary".

The Committee is of the opinion that endorsing a candidate or candidates is within the discretion of a judge provided the nature and type of endorsement does not contravene Canon 1, Canon 2A and Canon 2B of the Code of Judicial Conduct.

OPINION NO. 53(B)

Question: May a judge endorse a specific party?

Answer: The Committee assumes that the question is referring to a political party as distinguished from a specific person. Canon 5B(2) states "A judge should not solicit funds for any...political...organization, or use or permit the use of the prestige of his office for that purpose, but he may be listed as an officer, director, delegate or trustee of such an organization".

The Committee is of the opinion that since Canon 5B(2) permits a judge to be an officer, director, delegate or trustee of a political party, that the endorsing of such political party is within the discretion of a judge and does not violate Canon 5B(2) of the Code of Judicial Conduct.

OPINION NO. 53(C)

Question: May a judge engage in precinct, county and state party conventions as a delegate?

Answer: Canon 5B(2) states "A judge should not solicit funds for any educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, political, or civic organization, or use or permit the use of the prestige of his office for that purpose, but he may be listed as an officer, director, delegate, or trustee of such an organization. He should not be a speaker or the guest of honor at an organization's fund raising event, but he may attend such events".

The Committee is of the opinion that Canon 5B(2) permits a judge to be a delegate at a precinct, county and state party conventions.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included date do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities activities not represented by these court statistics.

Regarding appellate courts, temporary emergencies such as illness of a judge or unusually burdensom cases may distort the statistical picture. In addition, there is no reliable way to ascertain the time spent by appellate or trial judges in study or research in the composing of their opinions and decisions.

At least two factors are not represented in the district court statistics presented and should be borne in mind when evaluating judicial output:

1. One very complicated case may consume an inordinate amount of time compared to less complicated or lengthy cases.
2. The judges of district courts in most non-metropolitan areas spend more time traveling between different counties comprising a single district than do their metropolitan counterparts, and a metropolitan complex of many judges of identical jurisdiction permits judicial efficiencies not available in non-metropolitan areas.

Particularly the county court judges, justices of the peace, and municipal court judges spend a large amount of time counseling with the people in their communities, and as a result of this counseling, many cases are not filed. In addition, many of these judges have non-judicial responsibilities as a result of their position in the community which are not reflected in these statistics.

Art. 42.12, Sec. 3d of the Adult Probation Act and Article 42.13, Sec. 3d of the Misdemeanor Adult Probation Act provide for a system of deferred adjudication.

A case in which a deferred adjudication is granted requires a similar expenditure of both time and resources by a court as is required in a case in which a final judgment is entered.

Of the 67,488 criminal cases pending on the district court dockets at the end of 1980, 5,373 (8 percent) were cases in which deferred adjudications were granted. Of the 279,078 cases pending on the county-level court dockets at the end of 1980, 44,007 (16 percent) were cases in which deferred adjudication were granted.

STATISTICS AND ANALYSIS OF COURT ACTIVITY

SUPREME COURT
1980

The Supreme Court of Texas is the highest State court for civil appeals and promulgates the rules of civil procedure for the courts of the State. It is composed of the Chief Justice and eight justices.

The number of applications for writs of error filed in the Supreme Court during 1980 increased slightly from 1979. Eight hundred forty-nine applications were filed, compared to 822 in 1979--an increase of 3.3 percent, but 23 percent higher than the ten-year average of 691. In 1980, 116 new "regular causes" - primarily cases in which the Court hears oral argument and delivers an opinion - reached the docket, compared to 120 in 1979 and the ten-year average of 104. New civil mandamus matters decreased from 137 in 1979 to 130 in 1980 (5 percent decrease) and criminal mandamus matters decreased from 7 to zero in 1980.

In 1980, the Supreme Court disposed of 75 percent of the regular causes docketed during 1980 or carried over from 1979, compared to 64 percent in 1979. Eighty-three percent of the applications for writs of error were disposed of during the year, compared to 81 percent during 1979.

The Court delivered 123 deciding opinions in 1980 compared to 93 in 1979 - an increase of 32 percent. A total of 182 opinions were written (including Rule 483 per curiam opinions), an average of 20 per justice, compared to 15 in 1979.

The Supreme Court disposed of 849 applications for writs of error from decisions of the courts of civil appeals, compared to 776 in 1979, and an average of 94 per justice. Twelve percent of the 849 applications were granted. Of the granted writs, the Court of Civil Appeals was reversed in 81 percent of the cases for an effective reversal rate of the courts of civil appeals of 9 percent.

Thirty-one regular causes were pending at the end of 1980 - 24 less than at the end of 1979, and 4 cases less than the ten-year average. The number of applications for writs of error remaining on the docket at the end of 1980 was 180 - 4 percent less than the 187 at the end of 1979 and 37 percent more than the ten-year average of 131.

* "Regular Causes" are reported in a separate category because they are the cases which pass through most, if not all, of the steps of the regular appellate decision-making process. "Regular Causes" are cases in which oral argument of counsel in open court is received (unless waived) and in which the court's decision is usually reported in a written opinion. Most are reviewed in conference by the Supreme Court, before oral argument and decision, upon application for writ of error, with three or more of the justices voting that the decision of the Court of Civil Appeals was erroneous and that the writ therefore should be granted. A similar procedure is followed regarding petitions for original mandamus and habeas corpus, which become "Regular Causes" only after review and vote in conference. Cases other than "Regular Causes" include such actions as the court's rejection in conference of an application for writ of error or application to file a petition for original mandamus or habeas corpus. This category is obviously larger than that of "Regular Causes."

COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS

The Court of Criminal Appeals is the highest State court for criminal appeals and is composed of a Presiding Judge and eight judges. In addition, pursuant to Article 1811e, V.T.C.S., one special commissioner served the Court for a limited time during the year.

For the past three years, the number of cases filed in the Court of Criminal Appeals has levelled off somewhat from the mid-1970's trend of greatly increasing annual filings. The 3,072 new cases docketed in the Court were three percent less than the 3,166 cases docketed during 1979, but were still 48.3 percent higher than the ten-year average of 2,072.

A total of 2,242 applications for writs of habeas corpus and mandamus were filed during 1980. Two thousand one hundred twenty-two matters were disposed of in 1980, an increase of 19 percent over the 1979 total of 1,780.

Article 40.09, sec. 16 C.C.P. gives the Court exclusive power to grant extentions of time for the filing of transcriptions of court reporters' notes, bills of exceptions and briefs in criminal cases. The Court heard and disposed of 4,457 such applications, compared to 2,425 during 1979.

In 1980, the Court of Criminal Appeals disposed of 37.6 percent of the cases docketed during the year or carried over from 1979, compared to 44 percent the previous year. Eighty-three percent were disposed of by per curiam opinions, compared to 77 percent in 1979.

Two thousand seven hundred sixty-five opinions (including dissents and concurrences) were written in 1980, almost exactly the 1979 total of 2,767. Twenty-eight percent of these were authored opinions.

The Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed the trial court's decision in 72 percent of the cases reviewed and dismissed or abated the appeal in an additional 12 percent.

Four thousand eleven docketed cases were pending at the end of 1980 - 24 percent higher than a year earlier and 151 percent higher than the ten-year average of 1,599.

Based on the service of nine judges, the caseload per judge in the Court of Criminal Appeals remained higher than that of the other appellate courts. However, the number of cases filed per judge decreased slightly to 341 in 1980 from 351 in 1979.

On September 1, 1981 a constitutional amendment will become effective which will grant intermediate appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases to the courts of civil appeals, with discretionary review by the Court of Criminal Appeals. Until that time, appeals in criminal cases are directly to the Court of Criminal Appeals from the district and county courts.

The Court of Criminal Appeals is also burdened by the provision of Article 44.24 of the Code of Criminal Procedure which requires the Court to deliver a written opinion or certificate with citation of supporting authorities in each case it decides. The nine judges of the Court wrote an average of 303 opinions each during 1980. In 1979, the average was 307.

COURTS OF CIVIL APPEALS

The 14 courts of civil appeals exercise intermediate appellate jurisdiction in civil cases. Each court has geograpical jurisdiction in a supreme judicial district. Seven of the courts have three justices and three have six, for a total of 51 intermediate appellate justices in the State. (The First and Fourteenth Courts in Houston and the Fifth in Dallas were expanded from three to six justices effective December 1, 1978.)

Cases filed in all the courts of civil appeals during 1980 increased 7.2 percent over 1979 and were 33.7 percent higher than the ten-year average. More new cases were filed in 1980 than in 1979 in all but the First in Houston, Dallas, Amarillo and Beaumont courts. Of the courts with increased filings, the Eastland Court experienced the largest percentage increase - 41.1 percent (23 cases) - and the Fourteenth Court in Houston the largest increase in actual number of filings - 44 cases. The Dallas Court continued to receive more new filings than any of the other courts - 439 compared to the average of 187 (Figure 4). The two courts at Houston, each of which have jurisdiction over the same geographical area, received a total of 566 new cases, 16 cases more than in 1979. In 1980, the courts of civil appeals together disposed of 59.9 percent of the cases filed during the year or carried over from 1979, down from 61 percent of the previous year. The 2,457 dispositions were 34.3 percent higher than the ten-year average of 1,830 and 6.9 percent higher than 1979's 2,299 dispositions. The Dallas Court had the highest number of dispositions - 370 compared to the average for the 14 courts of 176.

In 1980, a total of 2,170 opinions were written by the courts of civil appeals, compared to 2,080 in 1979. The Dallas Court wrote the largest number of opinions - 258 - compared to the average per court of 155 (up from 149 in 1979).

The average number of written opinions per justice for all courts was 42.5 up from 41.0 in 1979. The courts of civil appeals reversed, at least in part, the decision of the trial court in 23.5 percent of the cases disposed, two percent less than during 1979. At the end of 1980, 1,672 cases remained on the courts of civil appeals ' dockets for subsequent disposition, a 13 percent increase over the previous year. The number of cases pending at the end of 1980 was 69.9 percent higher than the ten-year average of 984. Of the 1,672 cases pending December 31, 1980, 548 had been on the docket six to 12 months and 54 had been pending more than a year. Two hundred fifty six cases were pending on the docket of the Dallas Court at the close of the year. The number for the other courts ranged down to 54 at Eastland. The average number pending for all courts was 119, up from 106 at the end of 1979. The average lapse of time between the filing of a case in a court of civil appeals and its disposition ranged from 4.4 months in the San Antonio Court to 9.1 months in

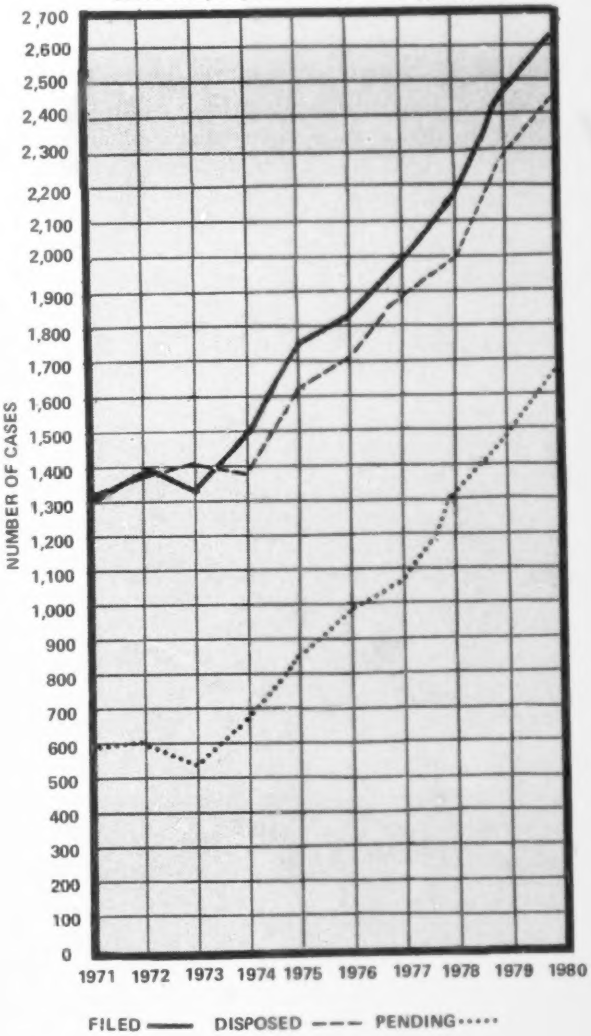
Cases filed, disposed and pending 1971-1980



(NOTE: In addition the two Houston Courts transferred 32 cases between themselves as allowed by Article 1817a, V.T.C.S.)

The San Antonio Court received the most relief from these transfers; of the 241 cases transferred to other courts, 75 were transferred from the San Antonio Court. The Eastland Court received the most transferred cases - 92.

The net result of these transfers for the year 1980 is shown in Figure 5. The workload of the courts after transfers were made is shown by the total bar above the center line. This workload ranged from 91 cases at Texarkana to 418 in the Dallas Court, a range somewhat narrower than the range of filings (71 at Texarkana to 439 in Dallas).

the Texarkana and Amarillo Courts. The average for all courts was 6.4 months, slightly less than during 1979. The average lapse of time from the submission of a case to the court and its disposition ranged from one-half of a month in the Fort Worth and Houston(14th)Courts to 4.7 in the Texarkana Court. The average for all courts was 1.6 months. While the 14 courts of civil appeals operate to a large extent as autonomous courts in specific geographical areas, some equalization of the dockets occurs by transfer of cases among the courts by order of the Supreme Court pursuant to Article 1738, V.T.C.S. The Supreme Court transferred 241 cases during 1980, compared to 333 transferred in 1979.

DISTRICT COURTS

The 310 district courts experienced a six percent increase in new cases filed in 1980 - 417,874 from 392,787 in 1979. The trend of filings is shown by Figure 9.

New civil cases filed increased 7.2 percent over 1979 while criminal cases increased 6.9 percent and juvenile cases decreased 21.8 percent.

Civil cases accounted for 77 percent of the new cases filed in 1980. Almost half of the civil cases filed (43 percent) were for divorce. Of the civil cases filed personal injury cases (including worker's compensation) comprised eleven percent as did tax cases and debt, up substantially over 1979.

Juvenile cases (Title 3 of the Texas Family Code) accounted for one and eight-tenths percent of the total cases filed in district courts.

Criminal cases accounted for 21 percent of the total new cases filed in 1980. Of the criminal cases, 24 percent involved a charge of theft (including auto theft), 22 percent burglary, seven percent robbery, two percent homicide (including capital murder), three percent rape (including sexual abuse of a child), six percent felony D.W.I. and 12 percent drug offenses, including marijuana. Almost eight percent of the new filings were misdemeanor cases. Sixteen percent of the criminal cases filed in the district court were by information, the remainder by indictment.

The number of all categories of cases filed in the nine Texas counties with 1980 population over 250,000 increased 5.1 percent, somewhat less than the 8.1 percent increase in all other counties. These nine large population counties (Harris, Dallas, Bexar, Tarrant, El Paso, Travis, Hidalgo, Nueces and Jefferson) had 53 percent of the State's population in 1980 and 56 percent of the total cases filed during 1980. Total case filings in the nine counties increased in all but Dallas County (which decreased two percent) and Travis and Nueces Counties (which remained virtually unchanged). Increases in the other six counties ranged from 19 percent in Hidalgo County to 1.8 percent in Jeffeson County.

Considering criminal cases only, filings increased 7.3 percent in the nine urban counties and 6.3 percent in all other counties. Civil case filings increased in only five of the urban counties - as high as a 17 percent increase in Bexar County.

In 1980, the district courts of the State disposed of 44 percent of the total cases on their dockets (filed in 1980 or carried over from 1979)

- down from the previous three years average of 48 percent. The district courts in the nine counties with population over 250,000 disposed of 46.8 percent. In all other counties of the State, 42.4 percent were disposed of. In all counties, 54.0 percent of the criminal cases and 42.9 percent of the civil cases on docket were disposed of during the year.

In the nine urban counties the disposition rate of criminal cases averaged 57 percent ranging from 65 percent in Tarrant County to 43 percent in Travis County. The disposition rate of criminal cases in counties under 250,000 averaged 51 percent of those on the docket, down from 60 percent in 1979.

Comparable figures for civil cases show an average disposition rate of 45 percent in the nine urban counties and 41 percent in the rest of the State. The range in the nine urban counties was from 59 percent in Dallas County to 35 percent in Bexar County.

An average of 1,204 cases per judge were disposed of in 1980, down from 1,228 in 1979, a decrease of two percent.

Fifty-eight percent of all civil cases were disposed of by non-jury trials. (Seventy percent of these non-jury trials were in divorce cases.) Sixteen percent were dismissed for want of prosecution and 13 percent at the request of the plaintiff.

Of the 79,174 criminal cases disposed of, in 58.4 percent the defendant had entered a guilty plea. Including these pleas, the defendant was convicted in 62.8 percent of the cases and acquitted in one percent. Thirty-five percent of the criminal cases were disposed of by dismissal. Of those cases dismissed, 18 percent were because of insufficient evidence and 23 percent because the defendant was convicted in another case. In the cases in which the defendant pleaded not-guilty and which were disposed of by jury verdicts, the defendant was found guilty in 83 percent of the cases and was acquitted in 17 percent. In trials before the judge alone on not-guilty pleas, convictions resulted in 69 percent of the cases and acquittals in 31 percent. The defendant was convicted of a lesser offense than that originally filed in 18 percent of the cases resulting in convictions.

Among the criminal cases, the highest rate for disposition by conviction was the category of Felony D.W.I. with 82 percent of the dispositions being by conviction. The highest rate of disposition by dismissal was of misdemeanors (52 percent). Conversely, the lowest rate of dismissal was for Felony D.W.I. - 15 percent were dismissed.

Twenty-seven death sentences (up from 20 in 1979) and 340 life sentences were assessed in the district courts during 1980. Ten thousand nine hundred ten persons were committed to the Texas Department of Corrections, 3,347 to local jails, 18,600 were placed on probation (excluding the 6,251 persons placed on deferred adjudication) and $7,991,600 in fines were assessed. The average sentence (including probation) was 4.6 years. Of the 79,174 criminal cases disposed by the district courts of Texas in 1980; 36.9 percent were disposed of in under 2 months, 15.6 percent took 2 to 3 months, 11.7 percent 3 to 4 months and 34.7 percent over 4 months. One percent of the dispositions were after completing deferred adjudication.

In the juvenile cases handled by the district courts, a finding of delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision was entered in 58 percent of the cases disposed of. The defendant was found not to have engaged in the proscribed conduct in two percent.

Texas courts handled one percent fewer divorces in 1980 than in 1979. In 1980, 132,710 divorce cases were disposed of - 47 percent of all cases handled by district courts. Twenty-one percent were dismissed for want of prosecution or by the plaintiff.

Tax cases tend to stay on the docket for long periods of time compared to other categories. Only 17 percent of the tax cases filed in 1980 or carried over from 1979 were disposed of by the district courts in 1980. Of those dispositions, 60 percent were dismissed by the plaintiff or for want of prosecution and another 21 percent were default judgments.

Twenty-eight percent of the personal injury type cases ended in agreed judgments and 23 percent were dismissed by the plaintiff. Of the 284,692 civil dispositions during 1980; the courts disposed of 31.2 percent in under 3 months, 20.9 percent in 3 to 6 months, 16.7 percent in 6 to 12 months, 10.9 percent in 12 to 18 months and 20.3 percent took over 18 months.

The total number of cases pending in the district courts at the end of 1980 - 473,191 - was thirteen percent higher than the 419,618 pending at the end of 1979. Criminal cases pending increased by over 19 percent while civil cases pending at the end of 1980 were up 12 percent.

While the 19 percent increase in criminal cases pending might by itself seem drastic, when the number of deferred adjudications granted during the year are taken into account, this increase is less dramatic. During 1980 the district courts granted 6,251 deferred adjudications (one of every fifteen cases handled by the courts). Of the 67,488 criminal cases pending on December 31, 5,373 (eight percent) were deferred adjudications already handled by the courts exclusive of the final administrative disposition.

Another way to look at the volume of cases pending December 31, 1980, is to assume that no new cases are filed in 1981 and that the district judges dispose of cases at the same rate as during 1980. At that rate, it would take an average of 462 days to dispose of the cases pending at the end of the year.

COUNTY-LEVEL COURTS

The county clerk in each of Texas' 254 counties is supplied forms by the Judicial Council for reporting the judicial activity in the county-level courts ("constitutional" county courts, county courts at law, probate courts, etc.). For 1980 the clerks in all 254 counties reported all twelve months activity, for a 100% reporting rate.

In terms of numbers of cases, criminal cases constituted 66.6 percent of the 454,361 new cases filed or appealed from lower courts. Civil cases accounted for 19.0 percent and probate 14.0 percent. New juvenile cases filed were less than one-half percent of the total.

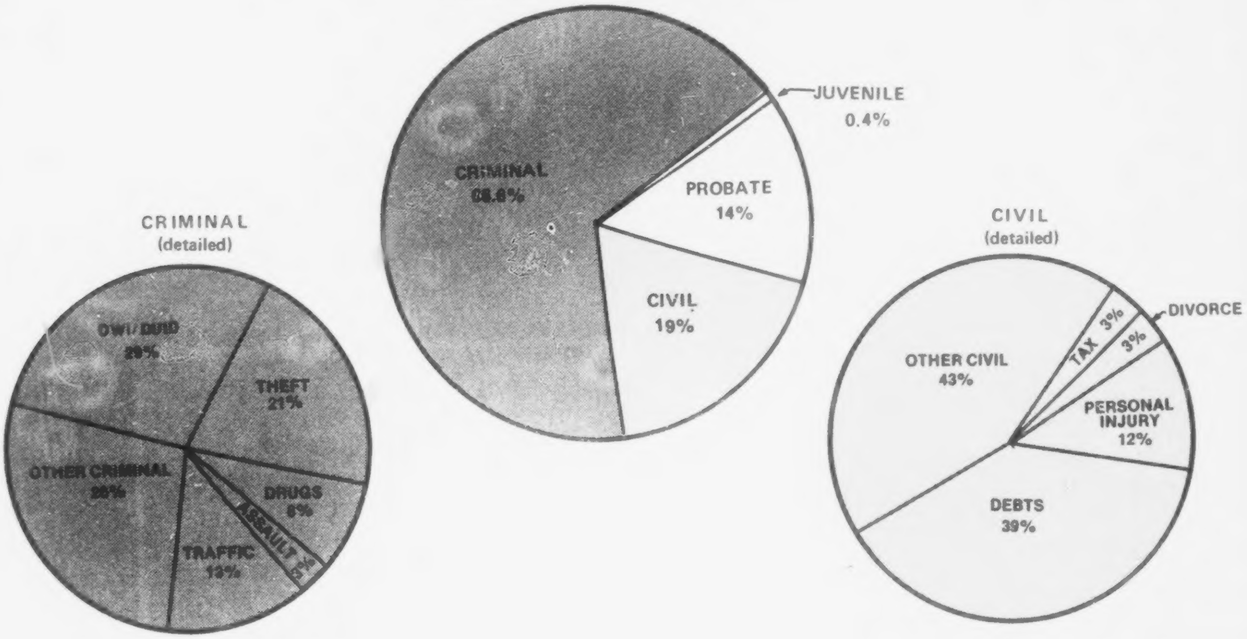
Categories of cases filed 1980



Concerning the criminal cases only, 29 percent (86,191) of those filed or appealed to the county-level courts from lower courts were for driving while intoxicated or under the influence of drugs. Twenty-one percent (63,124) were for theft, eight percent (23,206) for violations of drug laws, 13 percent (37,881) for traffic offenses, and three percent (8,028) for simple assault.

Again concerning criminal cases only, 20.2 percent of the cases added to the county-level court dockets came by way of appeal from justice of the peace or municipal courts rather than being filed originally in the county-level courts. Traffic violations accounted for 48 percent of all appeals.

Of the new civil cases docketed, 39 percent were classified as a suit on debt. Twelve percent concerned personal injury/damage suits, and three percent each for tax suits and suits for divorce.

During the twelve-month reporting period, the county-level courts of the State disposed of 46 percent of the total criminal, civil and juvenile cases on their dockets (filed during 1980 or carried over from 1979). No statistics on the disposition of probate cases are recorded. This disposition rate was highest for juvenile cases (60.2 percent). Forty-three percent of the civil cases on the docket were disposed of and 47 percent of the criminal cases. Within the criminal cases category, 56 percent of the drug charges, 41 percent of the D.W.I./DUID charges, 39 percent of theft charges, 53 percent of assault charges and 64 percent of traffic cases were disposed.

Looking at all cases (except probate), the county-level courts disposed of 334,030 cases, which is almost fifteen percent less than the 391,032 cases added to the dockets.

Forty-three percent of the criminal cases in county-level courts were disposed of following a plea of guilty or nolo contendere. Forty-two percent were dismissed. Trials were held in one per cent of the criminal cases, 1,112 before the judge alone and 1,951 before a jury.

The highest percentage of dismissals occurred in the traffic cases - 43 percent of the dispositions were by dismissal. Pleas of guilty or nolo contendere accounted for 63 percent of the D.W.I./DUID, 44 percent of the theft and 64 percent of drug case dispositions respectively.

The methods of disposition of civil cases parallel those for criminal cases except that a higher percentage of cases involved a trial. Eleven percent of the civil cases were disposed of following a trial, 1,108 before a jury and 8,139 before the judge alone. Forty-five percent of the civil cases were disposed of following a default or agreed judgment and 41 percent were dismissed.

Cases pending on the dockets of the county-level courts increased 17 percent from the first to the end of the year - 335,210 on January 1 and 392,272 on December 31. (This does not include probate cases.) Twenty-four percent more criminal cases and three percent more civil cases were left pending December 31, than on January 1.

While the 24 percent increase in criminal cases pending might by itself seem drastic, when the number of deferred adjudications granted during the year are taken into account, this increase is less dramatic. During 1980 the county-level courts granted 50,456 deferred adjudications (one of every six cases handled by the courts). Of the 279,078 criminal cases pending on December 31, 44,007 (sixteen percent) were deferred adjudications already handled by the courts exclusive of the final administrative disposition.

JUVENILE ACTIVITY

Section 51.04 of the Texas Family Code provides for the designation of a court or courts in each county as the juvenile court, to hear proceedings under Title 3 of the Family Code. The court(s) designated must be either a district, criminal district, county court at law or constitutional county court. The designation is to be made by the juvenile board in each county, or if there is none, by the judges of the above-mentioned types of courts in the county.

Juvenile court activity is therefore reported to the Judicial Council by either the district clerk, or the county clerk, or both, depending on which courts have been designated under Section 51.04.

Looking at total statewide activity, it appears that about 81 percent of the juvenile cases in the state were handled by district courts and the remaining nineteen percent were handled by county-level courts (county courts at law or constitutional county courts).

Combining the reports from both sources produces the table shown below. Statewide, 9,362 new juvenile cases were filed during 1980 - seventeen percent fewer than in 1979. Of these, 8,122 were for allegations of delinquent conduct (down seventeen percent from 1979) and 1,240 for allegations of conduct indicating a need for supervision (down thirteen percent). The courts disposed of 11,325 cases - eleven percent fewer than in 1979. Findings of delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision were entered in 60 percent of the dispositions and findings of no delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision were entered in two percent. Thirty-eight percent were dismissed or otherwise disposed of. Of those children found delinquent or in need of supervision, 83 percent were placed on formal probation. One thousand seventy-four children found to be delinquent were ordered confined in a Texas Youth Council home. During 1980, one hundred fifty-nine children were certified as adults and transferred to felony district court.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS

From various sources, the Judicial Council determined that there were 956 justices of the peace in Texas during 1980. Each justice was asked to submit a one-page monthly report to the Council on activity in that court. All twelve months' activity for 1980 was reported by 688 justices of the peace, 120 others reported fewer than twelve months' activity and 148 submitted no reports at all. Statewide, the Council received 9,188 reports out of a possible 11,472 for 1980 (80 percent).

In terms of numbers of cases, criminal misdemeanor cases comprised 86 percent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. Of these misdemeanor filings, 76 percent were traffic cases. During 1980, 1,262,556 traffic cases were filed, up seven percent over 1979. Non-traffic criminal cases filed were 2 percent more than in 1979 and comprised 21 percent of the total cases filed. Civil cases provided 14 percent of the new cases filed, about the same as during 1979. Sixteen percent of all civil filings were small claims suits, and 34 percent were forcible entry and detainer suits.

In addition, the reporting courts held 10,066 hearings to determine if a peace bond should be issued. In the justice of the peace's capacity as a State magistrate, the reporting judges accepted 34,182 complaints within the jurisdiction of the county courts and 69,845 within the jurisdiction of the district courts (felonies). Nine thousand one hundred eighty-six examining trials (preliminary hearings of district or county court cases) were held and 12,194 inquests were conducted. Driver's license suspension hearings totaled 43,193. Four thousand one hundred sixty-seven search warrants were issued and 99,311 defendants charged with county or district court offenses were given statutory warnings. Three thousand six hundred fifteen emergency mental commitment hearings were held and 11,096 hearings relating to juvenile matters were conducted.

Justices of the peace reported the disposition of cases in two major categories: prior to trial, including dismissals (other than those granted after completing defensive driving) and at trial. Seventy-six percent of all cases were disposed of before trial, 22 percent at trial and 2 percent were dismissed after the defendant completed a defensive driving course.

Looking at traffic cases only, 80 percent were disposed of prior to trial, practically all by payment of fine. Of the 18 percent that went to trial, 63 percent of the cases were tried before the judge alone and the remaining thirty-seven percent were tried before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial, the defendant was found guilty in 97 percent of the cases tried before the judge alone and in almost 100 percent of the cases tried before a jury.

Concerning non-traffic criminal cases, 80 percent were disposed of prior to trial. Twenty percent went to trial. Of those that went to trial, 99 percent were before the judge without a jury. Guilty findings were made in 94 percent of the trials before a judge alone and in 68 percent of the jury trials.

A much higher percentage (60 percent) of all civil suits went to trial than criminal cases (19 percent). Forty percent of the civil suits were dismissed before trial. Of the cases that went to trial, 99 percent were before the judge alone and the remainder before a jury.

The courts reported disposing of 1,624,929 cases, which is 84 percent of the 1,935,606 filed. Total dispositions were seven percent higher than in 1979.

Twenty-six thousand five hundred ninty-seven cases were appealed from the justice of the peace courts, or about one and one-half percent of the cases disposed of.

Total revenue collected by the reporting courts during 1980 was $43,554,279, two percent more than in 1979. This revenue becomes part of the treasury of the county where the court is located except for a $3.50 court cost on each case which is remitted to the special funds of the State. Finally, during 1980 justices of the peace reported holding 166,355 conferences prior to any legal action being filed in their courts. These conferences resulted in 79,222 causes (48 percent) not to be filed as formal cases.

MUNICIPAL COURTS

Starting in 1980 all 752 municipal courts in Texas cities were asked to submit a one-page monthly report to the Council on activity in the court. Prior to 1980 reports were submitted by only those cities with a population of over 5,000. All twelve months' activity for 1980 was reported by 489 of the courts, 109 others reported fewer than twelve months' activity and 154 submitted no reports at all. Statewide, the Council received 6,596 reports out of a possible 9,024 for the year (73 percent).

In terms of numbers of cases, traffic cases comprised 92 percent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. Two million eight hundred fifty-two thousand one hundred thirty-eight traffic cases were filed in these courts during 1980. Non-traffic criminal cases provided the other 8 percent of the new cases filed.

Of the new traffic cases filed 53 percent were for non-parking violations with the remaining 47 percent for parking related offenses. Seventy-six percent of non-traffic cases filed were state law violations with 24 percent related entirely to local city ordinances. In the municipal judge's capacity as a State magistrate, the reporting judges accepted 14,995 complaints within the jurisdiction of the county courts and 8,501 within the jurisdiction of the district courts (felonies). One hundred seventy-five examining trials (preliminary hearings of district or county court cases) were held, and 105 inquests were conducted by municipal judges. Driver's license suspension hearings totaled 13,014. Four thousand fifty-nine search warrants were issued and 69,783 defendants charged with county or district court offenses were given statutory warnings. Four hundred forty-four emergency mental commitment hearings were held and 6,338 hearings relating to juvenile matters were conducted.

Municipal courts reported the disposition of cases in two major categories: prior to trial including dismissals (other than those dismissed after completing a defensive driving course), and at trial. Eighty-eight percent of all cases were disposed of before trial, 11 percent at trial (after an appearance before the judge) and 2 percent were defensive driving dismissals.

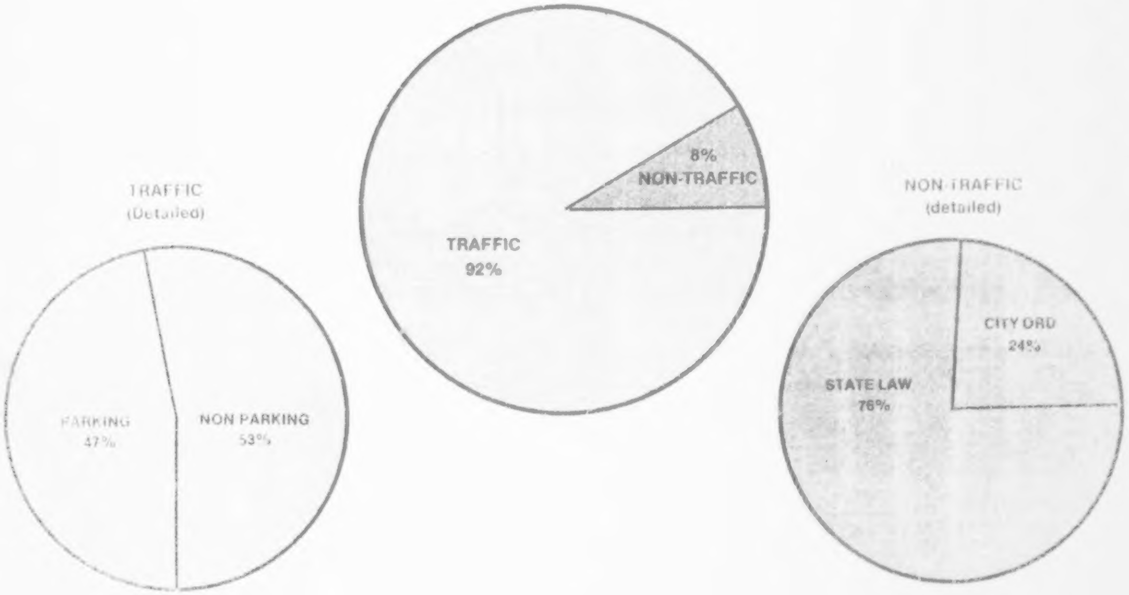
Categories of cases filed 1980



Looking at traffic cases only, 89 percent were disposed of prior to trial, 83 percent of the non-parking and 99 percent of the parking. Of the 10 percent that went to trial, 99 percent of the cases were tried before the judge alone and the other one percent before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial, the defendant was found guilty in 87 percent of the cases tried before the judge alone and in 72 percent of the cases tried before a jury.

Concerning non-traffic criminal cases, 71 percent were disposed of prior to trial (69 percent of the state law violations and 82 percent of those relating to city ordinances), and 29 percent at trial. Of those that went to trial, 99 percent were before the judge without a jury. Guilty findings were made in 91 percent of the trials before the judge alone and in 61 percent of the jury trials.

The courts reported disposing of 4,248,974 cases, which is 72 percent of the 5,884,031 filed.

Forty-nine thousand eight hundred forty-eight cases were appealed from the municipal courts, a little more than one percent of the cases disposed of.

Total revenue collected by the reporting courts during 1980 was $82,731,742. This revenue becomes a part of the treasury of the city in which the court has jurisdiction except for a $3.50 court cost on each case which is remitted to the special funds of the State. In 1980 $7,181,142 was reported as being submitted by the cities to the state.

DETAILED STATISTICS

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

At least two factors are not represented in the district court statistics presented and should be borne in mind when evaluating judicial output:

1. One very complicated case may consume an inordinate amount of time compared to less complicated or lengthy cases.
2. The judges of district courts in most non-metropolitan areas spend more time traveling between different counties comprising a single district than do their metropolitan counterparts, and a metropolitan complex of many judges of identical jurisdiction permits judicial efficiencies not available in non-metropolitan areas.

Deferred Adjudication

Art. 42.12, Sec. 3d. Adult Probation, Parole and Mandatory Supervision Law, and Art. 42.13, Sec. 3d. Misdemeanor Adult Probation and Supervision Law, both provide:

> (a) When in its opinion the best interest of society and the defendant will be served, the court may, after receiving a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere, hearing the evidence, and finding that it substantiates the defendant's guilt, defer further proceedings without entering an adjudication of guilt and place the defendant on probation on reasonable terms and conditions as the court may require and for a period as the court may subscribe not to exceed the maximum period of imprisonment prescribed for the offense for which defendant is charged. (Art. 42.12, specifies a 10 year maximum). However, upon written motion of the defendant requesting final adjudication filed within 30 days after entering such plea and the deferment of adjudication, the court shall proceed to final adjudication as in all other cases.
> (b) On violation of a condition of probation imposed under Subsection (a) of this section, the defendant may be arrested and detained as provided in Section 8 of this article. The defendant is entitled to a hearing limited to a determination by the court of whether it proceeds with an adjudication of guilt on the original charge. No appeal may be taken from this determination. After an adjudication of guilt, all proceedings, including assessment of punishment, pronouncement of sentence, granting of probation, and defendant's appeal continue as if the adjudication of guilt had not been deferred.
> (c) On expiration of a probationary period imposed under Subsection (a) of this section, if the court has not proceeded to adjudication of guilt, the court shall dismiss the proceedings against the defendant and discharge the defendant. The court may dismiss the proceedings and discharge the defendant prior to the expiration of the term of probation if in its opinion the best interest of society and the defendant will be served. A dismissal and discharge under this section may not be deemed a conviction for the purposes of disqualifications or disabilities imposed by law for conviction of an offense, except that upon conviction of a subsequent offense, the fact that the defendant had previously received probation shall be admissible before the court or jury to be considered on the issue of penalty.

While the granting of a deferred adjudication requires both time and resources on the part of the courts, the law specifically prohibits the entering of any final judgment (disposition) except as provided under Sec. 3d(b) and (c) respectively.

Of the cases heard during 1980, the district courts of Texas granted 6,251 deferred adjudications, and of these "finally" disposed of only 878. Of the 67,488 criminal cases pending on the district court dockets at the end of 1980, 5,373 (8 percent) were cases heard by the courts in which deferred adjudications were granted and which were pending "final" disposition. In any one specific county, to obtain the total number of cases pending on December 31, 1980, exclusive of those cases which are pending "final disposition" after deferred adjudication was granted, it will be necessary to reduce the number of cases listed in the category "CASES PENDING 12/30/80" by the number of cases listed in the category "DEFERRED ADJUDICATION" less the number of cases listed in the DISMISSALS category of "AFTER DEFERRED ADJUD."

DISTRICT COURTS

Explanation of Case Categories

CRIMINAL DOCKET

A criminal case is defined as one defendant per indictment or information. For example, if an indictment names more than one defendant, there is more than one case; three defendants named in one indictment equals three cases. If the same defendant receives more than one indictment, even if for the same criminal episode, there is more than one case: the same person named in four indictments equals four cases.

Finally, if an indictment contains more than one count (Article 21.24, C.C.P.) only one case per person named in the indictment is reported. The case is reported under the classification for the most serious offense alleged.

The case-type categories are:

1. CAPITAL MURDER. Any offense under Penal Code Section 19.03 (Capital Murder).

2. MURDER OR VOLUNTARY MANSLAUGHTER. Any offense under Penal Code Sections 19.02 (Murder) or 19.04 (Voluntary Manslaughter).

3. ASSAULT OR ATTEMPTED MURDER. Any felony offense under Penal Code Section 22.01 (Assault); any offense under Section 22.02 (Aggravated Assault), 22.03 (Deadly Assault on a Peace Officer), or 22.04 (Injury to a Child); or any offense of attempt (as defined in Section 15.01) to commit: Murder (19.03) or Voluntary Manslaughter (19.04).

4. RAPE. Any offense under Penal Code Sections 21.02 (Rape) or 21.03 (Aggravated Rape).

5. SEXUAL ABUSE OR RAPE OF A CHILD. Any offense under Penal Code Sections 21.09 (Rape of a Child), 21.10 (Sexual Abuse of a Child) or 21.11 (Indecency with a Child), or, if the victim is younger than 17 years, any offense under Sections 21.04 (Sexual Abuse) or 21.05 (Aggravated Sexual Abuse).

6. ROBBERY. Any offense under Penal Code Sections 29.02 (Robbery) or 29.03 (Aggravated Robbery).

7. BURGLARY. Any offense under Penal Code Sections 30.02 (Burglary) or 30.04 (Burglary of Vehicles).

8. THEFT. Any felony offense under Penal Code Sections 31.03 (Theft) or 31.04 (Theft of Service) except when the property involved is a motor vehicle.

9. AUTO THEFT. Any felony offense under Penal Code Section 31.03 (Theft) if the property involved is a motor vehicle, or any offense under Section 31.07 (Unauthorized Use of a Vehicle).

10. ARSON. Any offense under Penal Code Section 28.02 (Arson).

11. MARIJUANA SALE OR MANUFACTURE. Any felony offense under the Controlled Substances Act (Article 4476-15, V.T.C.S.) for the manufacture, delivery or sale, or possession with intent to deliver or sell marijuana.

12. OTHER DRUG SALE OR MANUFACTURE. Any felony offense under the Controlled Substances Act (Article 4476-15, V.T.C.S.) or the Dangerous Drugs Act (Article 4476-14) for the manufacture, delivery or sale, or possession with intent to deliver or sell a drug or controlled substance other than marijuana.

13. MARIJUANA POSSESSION. Any felony offense under the Controlled Substances Act (Article 4476-15, V.T.C.S.) for the possession of marijuana (over 4 ounces).

14. OTHER DRUG POSSESSION. Any felony offense for possession under the Controlled Substances Act (Article 4476-15, V.T.C.S.) or the Dangerous Drugs Act (Article 4476-14) other than possession of marijuana.

15. FORGERY. Any felony offense under Penal Code Section 32.21 (Forgery).

16. FELONY D.W.I. An offense under Article 6701l-2, V.T.C.S.

17. OTHER FELONY. Any felony offense not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the preceding categories.

18. ALL MISDEMEANORS. Any offense classified as a misdemeanor.

CIVIL DOCKET

A civil case, as opposed to a criminal case, is not dependent on the number of persons involved in a suit. Each separate suit normally commenced by the filing of the plaintiffs original petition, defines an individual civil case.

The case-type categories are:

1. AUTOMOBILE PERSONAL INJURY/DAMAGES. All cases for damages associated in any way with a motor vehicle (automobile, truck, motorcycle, etc.), with or without accompanying personal injury. Examples include personal injury, property damage, and wrongful death cases.

2. OTHER PERSONAL INJURY/DAMAGES. Cases for personal injury or damages not arising out of an event involving a motor vehicle. Examples include "slip-and-fall" cases.

3. WORKERS' COMPENSATION. Appeals from awards of compensation for personal injury by the Texas Industrial Accident Board. (Art. 8307, V.T.C.S.)

4. TAX. Suits brought by governmental taxing entities for the collection of taxes.

5. DIVORCE. Suits brought by a party to a marriage to dissolve that marriage pursuant to Family Code Chapter 3. (Annulments are not reported here, but under Other Civil.)

6. ACCOUNTS, CONTRACTS, NOTES. Suits based on enforcing the terms of a certain and express agreement, usually for the purpose of recovering a specific sum of money.

7. RECIPROCALS. Actions involving child support in which the case has been received from another court outside the county or state.

8. CONDEMNATION. Suits by a unit of government or a corporation with the power of eminent domain for the taking of private land for public use.

9. NON-ADVERSARY. This is a narrowly defined category, to include only:

-Adoptions
-Changes of Name
-Occupational Drivers License
-Termination of Parental Rights
-Dependent and Neglected Child Cases
-Removal of Disability of Minority
-Removal of Disability of Minority for Marriage
-Voluntary Legitimation (Section 13.01 Texas Family Code)

10. OTHER CIVIL. All civil cases not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the previous categories are included in this category.

JUVENILE DOCKET

Juvenile cases are based upon petitions for adjudication of a child alleged to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision (C.I.N.S.) as governed by Title 3 of the Texas Family Code.

OTHER PROCEEDINGS

The proceedings under these categories may stem from criminal, civil or juvenile cases.

DETAILED STATISTICS

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

Particularly the county court judges, justices of the peace, and municipal court judges spend a large amount of time counseling with the people in their communities, and as a result of this counseling, many cases are not filed. In addition, many of these judges have non-judicial responsibilities as a result of their position in the community which are not reflected in these statistics.

SPECIAL CAUTIONARY STATEMENT
Deferred Adjudication

Art. 42.12, Sec. 3d. Adult Probation, Parole and Mandatory Supervision Law, and Art. 42.13, Sec. 3d. Misdemeanor Adult Probation and Supervision Law, both provide:

(a) When in its opinion the best interest of society and the defendant will be served, the court may, after receiving a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere, hearing the evidence, and finding that it substantiates the defendant's guilt, defer further proceedings without entering an adjudication of guilt and place the defendant on probation on reasonable terms and conditions as the court may require and for a period as the court may subscribe not to exceed the maximum period of imprisonment prescribed for the offense for which defendant is charged. (Art. 42.12, specifies a 10 year maximum). However, upon written motion of the defendant requesting final adjudication filed within 30 days after entering such plea and the deferment of adjudication, the court shall proceed to final adjudication as in all other cases.

(b) On violation of a condition of probation imposed under Subsection (a) of this section, the defendant may be arrested and detained as provided in Section 8 of this article. The defendant is entitled to a hearing limited to a determination by the court of whether it proceeds with an adjudication of guilt on the original charge. No appeal may be taken from this determination. After an adjudication of guilt, all proceedings, including assessment of punishment, pronouncement of sentence, granting of probation, and defendant's appeal continue as if the adjudication of guilt had not been deferred.

(c) On expiration of a probationary period imposed under Subsection (a) of this section, if the court has not proceeded to adjudication of guilt, the court shall dismiss the proceedings against the defendant and discharge the defendant. The court may dismiss the proceedings and discharge the defendant prior to the expiration of the term of probation if in its opinion the best interest of society and the defendant will be served. A dismissal and discharge under this section may not be deemed a conviction for the purposes of disqualifications or disabilities imposed by law for conviction of an offense, except that upon conviction of a subsequent offense, the fact that the defendant had previously received probation shall be admissible before the court or jury to be considered on the issue of penalty.

While the granting of a deferred adjudication requires both time and resources on the part of the courts, the law specifically prohibits the entering of any final judgment (disposition) except as provided under Sec. 3d(b) and (c) respectively.

During 1980 the county-level courts of Texas granted 50,456 deferred adjudications, and of these "finally" disposed of only 6,449. Of the 279,078 criminal cases pending on the county-level court dockets at the end of 1980, 44,007 (16 percent) were cases heard by the courts in which deferred adjudications were granted and which were pending "final" disposition. In any one specific county, to obtain the total number of cases pending on December 31, 1980, exclusive of those cases which are pending "final disposition" after deferred adjudication was granted, it will be necessary to reduce the number listed in the category "CASES PENDING 12/31/80" by the number of cases listed in the category "DEFERRED ADJUDICATION" less the number of cases listed in the DISMISSALS category of "AFTER DEFERRED ADJUD."

COUNTY-LEVEL COURTS

Explanation of Case Categories

CRIMINAL DOCKET

A criminal case is defined as one defendant per information. For example, if an information names more than one defendant, there is more than one case: three defendants named in one information equals three cases. If the same defendant receives more than one information, even if for the same criminal episode, there is more than one case: the same person named in four informations equals four cases.

Finally, if an information contains more than one count (Article 21.24, C.C.P.) only one case per person named in the information is reported. The case is reported under the classification for the most serious offense alleged.

The case-type categories are:

1. D.W.I. OR D.U.I.D. An offense under Article 6701l-1, V.T.C.S. (Driving While Intoxicated) or Article 6701d, Section 50, V.T.C.S. (Driving Under the Influence of Drugs).

2. THEFT OR WORTHLESS CHECKS. An offense under Penal Code Section 31.03 (Theft) or Section 31.04 (Theft of Service) or any offense of theft or theft of service if the defendant obtained property or secured performance of service by issuing or passing a check or similar sight order for the payment of money, when the issuer did not have sufficient funds in or on deposit with the bank or other drawer for the payment in full of the check or order as well as all other checks or orders than outstanding. (Section 31.06, P.C. is also often cited in the complaint.) If the complaint is originally brought in the county court (Class A or B Misdemeanor), it is reported on Line 2. If the case is an appeal from a Justice of the Peace or Municipal Court (Class C Misdemeanor), it is reported on Line 3. Also included in Line 3 is an appeal of a case brought under Penal Code Section 32.41--Issuance of Bad Check.

3. DRUG OFFENSES. An offense under the Controlled Substances Act (Article 4476-15, V.T.C.S.) or the Dangerous Drug Act (Article 4476-14).

4. ASSAULT. An offense under Penal Code Section 22.01 (Assault) or 22.05 (Reckless Conduct).

5. TRAFFIC. Violations of the provisions of Article 6701d, V.T.C.S. (Uniform Act Regulating Traffic on Highways) and related statutes, except D.W.I. (Article 6701l-1) and D.U.I.D. (Article 6701d, Section 50).

6. OTHER CRIMINAL. An offense not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the preceding catgories.

CIVIL DOCKET

A civil case, as opposed to a criminal case, is not dependent on the number of persons involved in a suit. Each separate suit normally commenced by the filing of the plaintiff's original petition, defines an individual civil case.

The case-type categories are:

1. AUTOMOBILE PERSONAL INJURY DAMAGES. All cases for damages associated in any way with a motor vehicle (automobile, truck, motorcycle, etc.), with or without accompanying personal injury. Examples include personal injury, property damage, and wrongful death cases. Any type of driver's license suspension case, however, is not to be included in this category.

2. OTHER PERSONAL INJURY/DAMAGES. Cases for personal injury or damages not arising out of an event involving a motor vehicle. Examples include "slip-and-fall" cases.

3. TAX. Suits brought by governmental taxing entities for the collection of taxes.

4. SUITS ON DEBT. Suits based on enforcing the terms of a certain and express agreement, usually for the purpose of recovering a specific sum of money.

5. DIVORCE. (Applicable only for some County Courts at Law.) Suits brought by a party to a marriage to dissolve that marriage pursuant to Family Code Chapter 3. (Annulments are not reported here, but under Other Civil.)

6. OTHER CIVIL. All civil cases not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the preceding categories are included in this category.

JUVENILE DOCKET

Juvenile cases are based upon petitions for adjudication of a child alleged to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision (C.I.N.S.) as governed by Title 3 of the Texas Family Code.

PROBATE DOCKET

The number of probate cases, of all types, including mental health proceedings.
